Canadian Pros Made Low Scores at Boston

BROOKLINE, Mass., Sept. 19.—(Special.)—Did you ever see the home team win in the last innings on the last day and then what seemed a hopeless defeat into a glorious victory? Did you ever see a crowd go wild in their jubilation over the event? Did you? Well, that is what happened at the Country Club here today in the last round of the U. S. open golf championship tournament. The finish of the third round, three men tied for first place, with 225 each—Harry Vardon and Edward Ray, the English professionals, and Francis Ouimet, the Massachusetts State amateur champion. Charles Murray of Montreal, the lowest man down Canada, with 312. This was due chiefly to his all-round playing throughout the day. He was hopelessly under the weather, but he struggled hard and managed to keep his total down to 224. Karl Ketter of Ottawa came home with a grand total of 332. Also the Canadians did not make a good showing as was expected, they gave several of the bright lights a great run for the money.

The final for the title will be played off tomorrow morning at ten o'clock and the three contestants will struggle over 18 holes for the premier golfing title of America.

CARL MORRIS SCORES KNOCKOUT.
NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—East Al Reich, champion heavyweight as a "White Hope," Carl Morris of Oklahoma way to his glory when he knocked Reich out with a right-hand smash to the jaw in the second round of a scheduled bout at Madison Square Garden tonight. The punch landed flush on Reich's nose and he slowly sank to the mat. He lay motionless for a moment, with his knees raised by touching his face. He made no effort to rise as Reich's foot counted ten over him. At the final count Reich's head rolled down and carried Reich to his corner.

MUSIC.

A most attractive program has been prepared by Mr. Edward Lankow for the first concert of the Gilmore course, which takes place in Massey Hall on Thursday evening next. This celebrated basso will reveal the beauty of his magnificent voice in his opening number, the aria from Mozart's "Magic Flute." It was in this opera that Mr. Lankow made his first great hit in Toronto and Montreal. Mr. Burke is known as "Eddie." During the time he practiced law before leaving Montreal to study abroad, he was active in all manner of college musical affairs; a gleeful club soloist and a church singer. He returns to his native land prominently featured in the support of a world-famous artist.

Miss Spencer Returns.
Miss Clarice Spencer, principal of the elocution department of the Toronto College of Music, who has been giving recitals during the past few months in England and who received many high eulogiums for her work, which proved a variation on that of English entertainers, has returned to Toronto, and leaves next week for a tour of Canada, under the management of Mr. Wallace Graham. During her absence, Miss Winifred Parker, late principal of the elocution department of the Model School of Music, will take Miss Spencer's class at the college.

The Melba Concert.
On account of her signal success of the past season at Covent Garden and on the London concert stage, Mrs. Melba's appearance at Massey Hall promises to assume the proportions of a gala performance. Her appearance here on October 7th, coming so soon after her royal command performance before His Majesty, King George V., in which the great soprano scored the triumph of the season as Mimi in La Bohème, has aroused a future of expectation which has resulted in a flood of mail orders at the Massey Hall box office. The concert will be doubly significant because it will introduce to Torontonians a Canadian who has won a place among the foremost singers of the day. This is Mrs. Edouard Burke, the baritone, formerly of Mon-

SENIORS TURN OUT IN GOODLY NUMBERS

Geo. Barber Out With the Argonauts—R. M. C. Star Practices With Varsity.

George Barker, ex-Varsity and Parkdale outside wing, turned out with the Argos' big squad last night at Rosedale. The seniors again took on the intermediates and Manager Ross Binkley was pleased with the work.

Blackstock, the crack quarter and captain of the R. M. C. team last year, was out with Jack Maynard's squad last night and put in some hard kicks for the first time out. He will likely be used at centre scrimmage by the Blue and Black tonight's work at Varsity. The Argonauts, who have been in the same order as Thursday, and after an hour of practicing signals and punting and catching the backs, the practice was over.

Warren Corryell and Hughie Gail had some thirty odd in uniform at the Parkdale practice at Little Vic rink. Moore, the ex-Pennsylvania, was one of the most noticeable at work. He tackled the American style and shows his man down from in front. Zimmerman, the former Bents back, and Bickle, did some pretty heady work. Webster and Henderson were two others there with the high kicks.

Hume Crawford was elected captain of the Varsity seconds yesterday afternoon. The Varsity firsts will have their first line-up Monday Tuesday, when enough of the seconds return to give them a tussle.

Kew Beach Junior and Intermediate City League teams practice in Kew Gardens at 2:30 Saturday afternoon, while the Junior O. R. F. U. team plays High Park at 3:00. The Varsity firsts will be out in uniform. The seniors and the evening practices will be changed to 7:15 o'clock, Tuesdays and Thursdays.

Balm Beach had a big turnout at their practice last night. They had two hours of real hard tackling and signal work.

Balm Beach rugby teams will practice on Saturday afternoon at Ames athletic field at 2:30. The players will meet at the Scarborough Beach dressing room at 2 p.m. sharp. They will be unable to use the Scarborough Beach field on account of the city amateur baseball finals being held there. Ames field, but a few minutes' walk from Scarborough Beach, and is an excellent field for practice work. All players should be out in uniform. The showers and trainer's services will be available at the dressing rooms at Scarborough Beach after practice.

Balm Beach made a ten strike when they landed Frank Quigley, the sensational quarterback and captain of Pickering College last year. Quigley put in his first appearance last night at Scarborough Beach. He is now going to Queen's this year, but will stick with the Balm Beach until Nov. 1. He will line up with the O. R. F. U. team on next Saturday.

Some two weeks ago, when the Alert-Tiger-Carmen game of tag was going merrily on, this proposition was made: "Let the entire Alert team join forces with the Tigers. Then form the Tiger team from the pick of the two squads, and with what is left make up another team, to be called the Alerts." The proposition was made by the O. R. F. U. not only would this put an end to the Alert-Tiger and Tiger-Carmen games, but would enable Hamilton to place two senior teams in the field strong enough to bring some home boys and their own O. R. F. U. honors, and between them land the Canadian title. The proposition was made by the O. R. F. U. and was accepted by President Topp, with the result that it was not advanced to the Alerts—Hamilton Spectator.

Jack Maynard and Pete Campbell sported the new Varsity jerseys at the practice last night. It is a natty little thing, with a solid blue body and small white stripes on the arms.

The Interprovincial officials have changed their minds, and have notified the Alerts that the Junior team will be added to the Interprovincial intermediate series, providing they guarantee that none of the Alerts are quite ready to give the seniors as they are pretty well fixed for players without having to make any call on the seniors for assistance. Of course, the Tiger intermediates, who are in the same series, will have no hesitation in calling upon the Tiger seniors if help is needed—Hamilton Spectator.

Parkdale will practice at Little Vic this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

All intermediate rugby players of the High Park Athletic Club are requested to be at High Park Boulevard Monday evening at 6:30, including the following: G. Lancaster, R. LeClackie, G. Mitchell, Geo. McKewen, S. Burroughs, F. Garrett, A. Cronk, W. Smith, J. Fleming, H. Harkins, H. Snow, W. Reid, S. Murray, M. Cameron, K. Wilton, A. Prother, H. LePage, H. Rogers, F. Barry, I. Duthie, L. Smith, J. Lynch, A. Lynch, R. Starfield, R. Simpson, J. Ling, W. Stevenson, and any other players wishing to join a fast intermediate team be on hand or phone N. G. Morrison, P. 256.

The Ottawa Citizen says: The Hamilton Tigers will have one of the greatest teams they have ever had. They were poorly handled last season, otherwise they would have been right up at the top. That defeat which the Ottawas handed them at Hamilton on the opening date of last season knocked their plans topsy-turvy, but they finished strong and should have been higher. With Billy Mallett, McKelvey, Manson, Burton and Dixon behind the line, to say nothing of Ross Craig, Art Wilson, Bob Ishabier and other veterans, Tigers will make a great fight for the championship. The Hamilton Evening Club is living in hopes of securing the majority of the Alert players, who appear to have been effectively eliminated by the Toronto "machine," which practically controls football in that part of the Doan. The Alerts produced some pretty hefty footballers, making a great showing for so young a club, and it looks to the writer as if they hadn't been treated in a very fair manner by the "powers that be." True, their very heavy trousers, as much as they imported bachelors, has much to do with their defeat. The players for the O.H.A., but in three or four games a clean bill of health in that respect.

High Park Rugby Club play the Kew Beach O. R. F. U. team today at 3 p.m. on Trinity College grounds.

All Judan A.C. supporters are asked to note the change of grounds for the St. Patrick-Judean game for the 1913-14 season. The game will be played at the St. Patrick-Judean grounds, 1000 Bloor St. W., at 2:30 p.m. on Sunday, September 22.

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., Sept. 17.—(Special.)—A public meeting of citizens from both sides of the river was held in the city hall on the Canadian side tonight to inaugurate a campaign to obtain the proposed peace bridge for Niagara Falls. No plan was formulated, but a score of speakers told why these twin power cities should be selected as a site for the bridge.

NEW BENCHER WAS CHOSEN FOR OSGOODE

S. G. McKay of Woodstock Succeeds the Late J. M. Glenn of St. Thomas.

S. G. McKay, K.C., of Woodstock, will succeed the late J. M. Glenn, K.C., of St. Thomas. This was decided by the benchers of the Law Society of Upper Canada yesterday. It was also suggested that the benchers request the government to retain Judge Morgan on the bench. The matter was dropped, however, as it was thought that such a resolution would establish an undesirable precedent.
