

any good. Dr. Dunlop's bill ought to teach you a lesson of prudence in this matter. The vast wealth which the Company is gradually carrying out of the country, and for which they leave no equivalent whatever, will make them anything but popular, and therefore you should be the more quiet and careful not to drag them unnecessarily before the public. You should also remember that the possession of property is accompanied with conditions of a generous character, not one of which the Company has as yet redeemed. They have done nothing worthy of the proprietors of so vast an estate to endear them to Upper Canada ; and be assured that unless they do something of the kind soon, instead of concentrating all their exertions to one object, that of screwing the last farthing from the poor emigrant, by rack prices and rack rents, they may expect very serious difficulties at no distant period.
