

BARON HALIBURTON OF WINDSOR.

The Right Hon. Baron Haliburton, of Windsor, was a son of Sam Slick. On the occasion of his death in May, 1907, the Illustrated London Items said:—"Lord Haliburton was a distinguished public servant, whose best services, tho' they are associated with past decades, will not readily be forgotten in government circles. The late Peer was born in 1832, and called to the Bar of Nova Scotia in 1855. He joined the commissariat Department of the British army during the Crimean War, some years later he became Director of Supplies and Transport, and in 1888 was appointed Assistant Under-Secretary of State for War, in War Department, and held the post for two years. In 1898, he was raised to the Peerage.
