

THE Committee desire to express their thanks to those ladies and gentlemen who have in the most cordial and generous manner placed their collections at the disposal of the Art Museum for the purposes of this Exhibition. The fact that so many pictures of great artistic value and importance have been acquired in Toronto, for the most part during the few past years, must come as a revelation to the general public.