MONDAY N

JOHN DONOGH'S FUNERAL TODAY

Prominent Lumber Man to Be Laid to Rest at Forest Lawn.

John Donogh, a prominent lumberman, who died at his residence, 53 Chestnut Park road, on Friday last, aged 66, was prominently identified with the Methodist union movement and at the time of his death was vicepresident of the Oddfellows' Relief Association of Canada, vice-president of the LO.O.F. Hall Association of Toronto, life-member of the Triple Link First Aid Association and a member of the board of trade.

The late Mr. Donogh was born in Guelph in 1853, the family shortly after moving to Toronto, where he ventually kept the books of the S. R. Briggs Lumber Company. In 1895 he moved to Buffalo, returning to To-ronto to form the John Donogh Wholesale Lumber Company, of which he was manager until taken ill.

Mr. Donogh was married to Miss Fannie Woodley in September, 1874. He had no children and is survived by his widow and sister.

Mr. Donogh was a prominent Forester, being grand master of the Grand Lodge of Ontario, I.O.O.F., and grand treasurer of the grand lodge. He was also high in Masonic circles, being a grand master of Zetland Lodge, No. 326, A.F. and A.M., and member of Wilson Lodge.

The funeral will be from his late day at 2.30, to Forest Lawn mauso-mains that had a system of proportional representation been in use all sections of political thought would have been properly represented."

Touching upon the referendum and recall, the speaker stated that so far as he was aware the U. F. O. re-fused to consider anything of this nature unless a petition for the recall of a member was signed by 50 per cent. of the electors of the constituency. In California a law had been enacted making a signature of 25 per cent. of the electorate sufficient for the recall of a member. One could not doubt at least the justice of a 50 per cent. cent. signatory to such a petition.

The speaker concluded by referring to the many planks of the new govern-
