Ask your doctor how long he has known Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Ask him if he uses it himself, in his own family. Ask him if he can recommend anything better for throat and lung troubles, such as hard coughs and colds, hoarseness, bronchitis, weak lungs. Do as he says, at any rate. We are willing.

WOMAN'S WORLD.

AN EXCELLENT STYLE FOR SLENDER FIGURES.

The whole aim of the French designer would seem to be for the perfection of soft effects, and everywhere these are seen in the development of the Empire and Princess gowns, as well as in suits of tailored persuasion. A suit showing the tenderness of newest designs is sketched and one cannot fail to appreciate its effect upon a wearer of graceful lines. The jacket is of the new semi-fitted order, having its seams finished in the kind of the result is a becomingness which few jackets of this kind realize. The sleeves are of three-quarter length, or in full-length if preferred. The dressier one, with tuck-plaids at the front and side seams, hanging in graceful fullness and with a pretty flare. The suit may be developed on any of the new materials. For the medium size 1-2 yards of 44-inch material are needed.

Child Fairyland.

I heard a distressed mother say, not very long ago: "I don't know what in the world to do with Harry. He tells the most unaccountable stories and so solemnly swears they are the truth. We simply cannot get him, apparently, to see the difference between the truth and a lie, and what I am to do about it. I do not know."

"I am tempted to tell above all things, and if I thought he would grow up in this idea of untruthfulness I should go crazy. Let me be such a good child in every other way, and he is so tiny that I can't bear to punish him for it."

"Can you imagine a woman so lost to the beautiful, delicate imagination of childhood, the fancy which causes them to see a fairy lurking behind every tree and an angel in every cloud?"

"The other night I was sitting opposite a charming child and his mother pointed to the blaze of sunset light. 'I can imagine a woman so lost to the beautiful, delicate imagination of childhood, the fancy which causes them to see a fairy lurking behind every tree and an angel in every cloud?'"

"There in the sky," he said, as he pointed to the blaze of sunset light, "I think she must have spilled the lamp and set the clouds on fire, and oh, look, mother, she must have tipped over the sky too. See, it's right down to the earth, 'way out there,' and he pointed to the horizon line."

"And the wise little mother smiled and said: 'So it is, dear.'"

A child with such a vivid imagination is bound to dream things which he is sure are true."

When he tells you of the big black bear he met out on the street, or the ugly yellow Chinaman that he saw in his room last night, or the beautiful angel he met on the stairs, who talked to him for a long, long time, don't tell the child he is lying and punish him for it. Perhaps his imagination will make him a great poet some day, or an artist, or an author."

Public Amusements

We are again glad to hear England's greatest and most sumptuous musical comedies, "A Country Girl" and "The Cingaleses." They will be presented by the Augustin Daly Musical Company at the Princess Theatre all next week. These two musical plays were written by James T. Tanner, with lyrics by Adrian Ross, Paul Rubens and Percy Greenback; music by Lionel Monckton. They were originally produced in London at Daly's Theatre, after which they were brought to Daly's New York Theatre, where they enjoyed long and prosperous runs. The present productions are complete in every detail, and will be produced here on a magnificent scale. A grand chorus and fifteen principal, and augmented orchestra are features of the performances. The engagement of this organization in these two plays will be the most pretentious that has occurred here this season. They will be given in the following order: "A Country Girl," Monday Tuesday matinee, Tuesday, Wednesday matinee, and Saturday night. "The Cingaleses," Wednesday, Thursday, Friday matinee, and Saturday matinee.

Miss Ethel Barrymore, who created the title role of the dramatic success, "Sunday," admitted that the part was more to her liking than the one she had ever appeared in, and, truth to tell, proved her greatest success, packing

Scene from "Sunday"—Grand. ing the Hudson Theatre, New York City, for a continuous run of 200 nights. The entire production that served Miss Barrymore and a superb cast of noted metropolitan actors, is to be presented at the Grand Theatre, New York, with a matinee on Tuesday (New Year's Day), Wednesday and Saturday. The character of the heroine, Sunday, is so skilfully drawn as to stamp it a masterpiece, so lovable, so tender, so true, that she immediately wins the love of the audience and the admiration of the men.

Wherever "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch" has been presented, the names of the heroine, of Miss Mary Love, and Mr. Stubbs, have become a part of the everyday life of the community. They and those around them represent types that live and breathe and have their place in all parts of America. Next to being the mother of the superlatively good, Eleanor Robson, the one thing which has made her a success in life of which Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch, in which she will be seen at the Grand Theatre the week after next.

For New Year's week Mr. Shea has secured as a headliner Thomas J. Keogh, a comedian of the first rate. His early experience with the best stock companies qualified him for the more important position of "star" that has since marked his career. After a long run with Mabel Gilman in "The Mocking Bird," Mr. Keogh was secured in "The Gay Mr. Goldstein," "Baron Rudolph," "The Silver Slipper," and "The Girl From Dixie."

A tempting offer has again lured Mr. Keogh to return to the theatre, and his latest sketch, "The Way He Won Her," is voted to be his greatest success. The timely selection, which calls himself "the timber, the tree," comes to Shea after a long and successful tour of Europe. Ever hard to a hoop roller, but he rolls hoops of all sizes, and more of them than the audience can count. Will Lester and Joe Manning, who act here for the first time in Lester's clever little sketch, called "The Little Immigrant." One of the pleasing features will be Harry Tigh's College. Harry Tigh is a well-known and clever comedian, and his singing and dancing girls and boys supply an act that is an every way novel and pleasing. Billy Van, "The Minstrel Man," is still smoking a wonderful cigar, and still vanishing his voice from away from him, but he has many new stories and comedies. Kelly and O'Brien are clever comedians, and their singing and dancing always of the first class. During this high-class season, and they are presented by a former well-known Buffalo musician, Signor Porcari. Herr Grace has a troupe of wonderfully trained baboons, and the cinematograph will show the big bill with a full line of pictures.

The Toronto University Glee Club have been fortunate in securing as director for the season's concert Mr. H. M. Fletcher, conductor of the Schubert Choir and People's Choral Union. This organization of thirty-two voices will sing during January in Hamilton, St. Catharines, Brantford, Orangeville, Guelph, Georgetown and College-street Baptist Church, Toronto.

At her concert on Monday evening next, Miss Jessie Macdonald, the famous Scottish soprano, will be heard in five numbers. Two numbers are from Burns, embodying the New Year sentiment, one being "Auld New Year Tae Ane an' A'"; and "Auld Lang Syne," by request. The third number she will sing "The Hundred Pipers." Her other numbers will be "The Auld Scots Songs," "Auld Kilt," "Caledonia," "The Cameron Men," "Hunting Tower," and "Blue Bonnets O'er the Border."

The "Sunset Mysteries," who have been on tour through Ontario, and are returning for two very entertaining evenings, are receiving the highest praises from all the critics. The members of the company are: Fendy Price, first tenor; Ben Calvert, second tenor; Harry Luscombe, baritone; Gavin Woodhouse, bass; Thomas Walls, tenor; Roland Henry, jester; Percival Macenzie, lightning cartoon artist, and D.

A Heavy Load to Carry.

Along with dyspepsia, comes nervousness and general ill-health. Why? Because a disordered stomach does not permit the food to be properly digested, and its products assimilated by the system. The blood is charged with poisons which come from this disordered digestion, and in turn the nerves are not fed on good red blood, and we see symptoms of nervousness, sleeplessness and general breakdown. It is not head work, nor over physical exertion that does it, but poor stomach work. With poor, thin blood the body is not protected against the attack of germs of grip, bronchitis and consumption. Fortify the body at once with Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery—a rare combination of native medicinal roots without a particle of alcohol or dangerous habit-forming drugs.

A little book of extracts, from prominent medical authorities extolling every ingredient contained in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will be mailed free to any address on request by postal card or letter. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce of active practice convinced that the value of the native medicinal roots as medicinal agents and he went to perfect his own peculiar process for rendering them both efficient and safe for use as an alternative and rebuilding agent.

CHASED POACHER 25 MILES

THEN COULDN'T ARREST HIM

Last week Chief Park Ranger Sawyer of the Algonquin Park chased a poacher 25 miles on snowshoes, only to find, when he finally caught him, that he was about half a mile outside the boundary of the park, he had no jurisdiction to detain him, although he had the beaver skins on him.

It is probable that the regulations will be changed to allow the park rangers to follow poachers to any point, so long as the chase commences in the park.

Heart, Throat, Liver and Skin

DR. AGNEW'S FOUR FAMOUS SPECIFICS CURE COMPLETELY THE WORST DISEASES OF THESE PARTS—DREADFUL HEART DISEASE RELIEVED IN THIRTY MINUTES.

Heart disease will affect people differently, but in all cases it must be viewed with great alarm. Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart is the one remedy that can be safely depended upon in times of trouble. It will give relief in thirty minutes.

Mr. Thomas Petry, of Aymer, Que., was troubled with severe heart complaint for five years, the pain at times being so severe that he could not attend to business. Every other remedy failed until he tried Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart, which gave immediate relief, and his words are these: "I have now taken four bottles of the remedy and am entirely free from every symptom of heart disease."

A cold in the head need not be trifled with, for it is catarrh in an incipient condition, and catarrh is not to be trifled with. Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder, as scores of testimony, drives away a cold in the head like magic, and where this has assumed the shape of aggravated catarrh, producing deafness and throat trouble, it effects a permanent cure.

It is not always safe to take pills for liver trouble. They not unfrequently create other troubles that are serious. Dr. Agnew's Liver Pills, whilst thoroughly certain of removing all liver trouble, give no difficulty either at the time or afterwards. They are pleasant to take and cost only 10 cents.

The faculty that Dr. Agnew has displayed in getting at the seat of trouble is manifest in his Ointment, as in the other three remedies. This contains the elements that give speed and permanent relief in all skin diseases and is peculiarly effective in curing piles. 35 cents.
