with boils, and the day of the race had two lanced by a doctor.

The race was lost on the first half-mile. Towns got away first. Durnan overhauled him, but the extra effort cost him too much strength and he could not hold the pace. Towns passed him after three-quarters of a mile, and Durnan could not gather the strength to spurt. He was beaten by a length and a half. Towns has agreed to another race, but Durnan can give no definite statement until he reaches home Durnan thinks a race will be arranged to be rowed in Toronto, altho both carsmen are willing to journey to London, provided financial arrangements can be made Durnan has received challenges from Barry or Sullivan, but will not consider a proposal of any kind until he disposes of Towns. He gives great praise to the Australians for the attention given by them to the oursmen, Durnan was given a grand send-off when leaving.

"You remember the agitation on the subject of Sunday street cars? Practically all the ministers were against their introduction. How many ministers to-day walk on a Sunday?

"Practically all a man can do now in this city on Sunday is to sit on his back doorstep. He would be much better moving around, with some freedom, in the parks where there would be some relaxation for him. I have been in Chicago and Milwaukee on Sunday, and things are not run there wide open at all, that I could see. Some shops at all, that I could see. Some shops and some lower-class theatres were open, but otherwise it was as quiet almost as here.
"I feel interested in the league that is being talked about, and would like to join it. Here's Another.

"A traveling man from St. Louis, who has been here to sell me goods every week for the last two years, happened to arrive in this city on a Sunday." said Ernest G.
