FOUR YEARS FOR $6000.

Charles Reid, a Defaulting Official at Windsor, Gees to the Penitentiary—Judge Horne Felt Badiy.

Windsor, June S.—Charles Reid, the Refaulting clerk of the Water Board, appeared before Judge Horne in the County Court this morning and pleaded guilty to embezzling $6000. The Judge, after commenting upon the enormity of the offence, said the prisoner for 14 years in the penitentiary, but in view of the circumstances he would be as lenient as possible and let him off with four years. Reid looked as in with four years. Reid looked as in the would faint and it was with difficulty that he gasped: "Can't yon make it less than that?" The Judge, who had known him since he was a child, replied: "If the money had been mine, I would have had the right to forgive and you could have walked out prese, but the interests of the public must be considered."

Reid broke down, and when he was led out begged the sheriff to have him removed to Kingston at once. He will probably be taken there Monday. He has a widowed mother and wife and several children.

FOR ROBBING THE MAILS.

Big Blaze at a Bamboo Factory.

On Saturday morning the driver of one of Copd's milk wagons, while passing Chapman's. Corners in Scarboro, saw an old woman acting in so strange a manner under a tree just off the road that on reaching East Toronto he informed Constable Boart, on passa place of the proact of the fact on proceeding to the spot, the foot of the fact on proceeding to the spot, the flowers, and a black dress. She said he name was Mrs. Craig, but couldn't remember where she lived. Constable Booth, to street whith her son, Toronto Street Car Conductor Craig of 125 Sumach-street, had searched all over the town-mining before, but the search proved in the residence because the world in the residence because the proceeding to the spot, the fact on promote the factory in Herbert-avenue, Queen-and foot the factory in Herbert-avenue, were well ablaze. A FIGHT WITH HYENAS.

eir Keeper During a St Parade at Bridgeport. Bridgeport, Conn., June 6.—The spectators of the Barnum & Bailey street parade here this morning witnessed a thrilling fight between four hyenas and their keeper. The cage containing the beasts and Harlo Northrup, the keeper, was swinging from State into Mainstreet when the trouble occurred. The largest of the animals had been ugly all the morning. The brute sprang for Northrup and the keeper turned in time to meet him full in the tace with his lcaded whip. The injured animal renewed the attack and one of the others joined in. The two remaining beasts took no part in the attack, but their running about interfered with the keeper, who was raining blows on his assailants. Suddenly the brave fellow was seen to fall to the floor, and the crowd thought he was lost. He regained his feet and finally had the beasts grovelling at his feet. The keeper was arsisted from the cage, completely exhausted.

tow PRICES OF PROVISIONS.

It has been a common remark during the past few days that pork was never known to sell as low as $6.80 before; but it is nevertheless a fact that in 1872 it sold in Chicago at $6.02½ per bbl., the lowest price ever heard of before or since. In the case of lard and ribs, however, we believe that never before in the history of the trade have they been known to sell as low as during the first of this week, namely, lard at $4.10 and short ribs at $3.60.

BANK OF COMMERCE REPORT.

The annual report of the Bank of Commerce is not as satisfactory as an former years, and the management attribute this state of things to the severe depression in trade. A careful re-valuation of the entire assets of the bank has been made and bad and doubtful debts amply provided for. To do this, however, it has been necessary to draw on the profits of former years, and $200,000 has been taken from "rest" account, which reduces that fund to $1,000,000. Whet profits for the year were $466,523, or 7½ per cent. on capital of $6,000,000. The Treasury gold is down to of profit and loss account.
