ROSS MACKENZIE OUT.

he Niagara Falls Park and River

St. Catharines Standard. announcement of a few days ago in The Standard that Ross Macenzie, Manager of the Niagara Falls likely to resign, caused some surprise. On Thursday the resignation was tendered, and now facts enough have developed in connection with the retirement of Mr. Mackenzie to make an interesting story. It is to the effect that there may be a partial reorganization of the company.

The Niagara Falls Park and River Electric Railway was built at a cost of over $500,000. This includes the power houses as well as the road and equipment. From all accounts no dividends have been paid to the stockholders, and it has been demonstrated that ment. From all accounts no dividends have been paid to the stockholders, and it has been demonstrated that a change may be necessary to make the plant pay expenses. An official of the road said that it was the original intention to continue the road from Chippewa to Fort Erie and also from Queenston to Niagara-on-the-Lake. It was also the intention of the company to develop power and sell it to customers. To this effect an arrangement was made with the Niagara Falls Power Company with the consent of the Canadian Government, last fall, that company having the exclusive right to develop power at Niagara Falls South. It was given out at the time this agreement was made with the American company that the Canadian Company would at once begin the development of power. Still it has not been done. Neither has any step been taken toward extending the line: It is said that the company has been hindered in carrying out its original intended to the company has been hindered in carrying out its original intended in ca dered in carrying out its original in-tentions by the Niagara Navigation Company, also by the delay in the building of the new bridge to take the States.

The road has not been a paying investment, and steps are to be taken to reduce the operating expenses.

The first step toward the improvement of the Canadian Electric Railment of the Canadian Electric Rail-way Co., and the most important step at that, will be an increase of the capital stock. The men in this com-pany are among the most wealthy, en-terprising and reliable men in the Do-minion, and if it is true they have said they will extend their road they will do it.

Wheat—The Malack of red and white are reported at 67c west. No. 1 Manitoba are reported at 67c west. No. 1 Manitoba are reported at 67c west. No. 1 And to a red quoted at 76c. said they will extend their road they will do it.

It is said that the announcement a day or two ago that a company had obtained the right from the Canadian Government to build a plant and develop power at Fort Erie, had spurred the railway company to action.

H. Perkins has issued an order that hereafter no Canadian silver will be accepted at the Rochester postoffice The new rule goes into effect at once This course was forced on the postoffice officials on account of the similar stand taken by the Rochester banks

the local depatment has discriminated against Canadian coin, but never for intended to enforce the rule rigorously.

Harper of Cincinnati to recover $400,000. The decision was against the plaintiffs, on account of the statutes of limitations, Harper tried to run a wheat deal through Kershaw & Co., and Irwin, Green & Co. He was vice-president and director of the Fidelity National Bank of Cincinnati, and gave Kershaw drafts on New York for margins for $600,000. They were placed with the American Exchange National Bank of Chicago to the credit of Kershaw and Irwin, Green & Co. The bank threw out Kershaw's cheque and precipitated his fallure, with liabilities of $1,000,000. It also carried down 15 local commission houses, Harper was tried for appropriating the bank's funds, and sentenced to 10 years' imprisonment, but is now out, and is said to be running a bucket-shop in Cincinnati. The arrivals of gold at New York since Burlington $100, Mannathin 200, Ateather, pref., 5700.

McIntyre & Wardwell (John J. Dixon) send the following despatch to their branch office in Toronto: The expectation of a favorable bank statement and the report of an unensy short interest in London caused a strong stock market the early part of the session. Sugar rose nearly 2 per cent, but later dropped 1½, which movement induced profit-taking in the general list and tempted room-selling for a reaction. The declines failed to wipe out early gains and the market closed quiet at recessions. The features of the bank statement were increases of $3.761,000 in surplus, $3.464,000 in legal tenders and $2.392,000 in deposits, and a decrease of $1.348,000 in loans. Throughout the week the stock market has displayed an increasing tendency to discount the election of McKinley, and people who have been vainly waiting for a reaction have been purchasers, and the market has widened materially as to the number of stocks in which there has been netivity and advances, though outside speculative interest has not developed to any extent yet, and the movement has been increased activity in the buying of material, with symptoms of improvement in the denand for manufactured product and commodities generatily. Sterling Exchange is quiet at 4.84, and this rate leaves small margin for gold imports, but more are expected next week. The St. Paul brought in $400,000 gold to-day, making total to date $31.733,000. There is considerable rate cutting in the West, but it is said the roads there are trying to copy the organization of the Joint Traffic Association of the trunk lines.

With reference to the New York money market, a prominent Wall-street house says:

"Time money is offered now for all periods at 6 per cent. on good mixed stock exchange collateral. Money brokers report that short-time loans, 60 to 90 days, predominate over those for longer periods, as borrowers are confidently expecting easier rates after the Presidential election. While no startling increase is to be noted in sales of commercial paper, the broadening of the market is steady. Each day brings an interest last year.

Henry Clews, in his special dated Sept.

26, says: We have been so long accustomed to dealing with unfavorable conditions that the spirit of hopefulness seems to have lost all its elasticity. Now, the current of affairs has taken a complete turn towards healthier conditions. It is no merely transient surface change, but is one that goes deep into matters that are fundamental. But either people don't see their eyes and want the evidence of a miracle. A set of facts like the following scarcely moves them:

1896. Exports of mdse since Jan. 1. $580,982,000 Imports of mdse. since Jan. 1. 471,222,000

Excess of exports for 8 months, 109,760,000 1895.

Exports of mdse. since Jan. 1. $499,388,000 Imports of mdse. since Jan. 1. 535,738,444

Excess of imports for 8 months $36,350,000 The balance of trade has turned from $36,350,000 against us last year to $100,760,000 in our favor so far this year, and it is highly probable that this drift will continue for the balance of the year, as Europe will require all the cotton and brendstuffs we can send them.

During the Baring panic in 1890 we shipped during seven months, $78,000,000 gold to England, because the conditions called for it, and it finally gave financial rellef to London, and aided immensely in stopping the panic. Now we want gold on this side, and it would not be at all surprising if we should draw as much as $78,000,000 for from Europe before the current turns again in favor of an export of the precious metal.
