SPEND A MILLION TO BEAT HEARST

Down Him in the Gubernatorial Fight.

New York, Sept. 4.-Men close to William R. Hearst estimate that the expenses of his campaign for nomination for governor will be approximately $1,000,000. His opponents are willing to spend as much as that to beat him. Evidences are multiplying that the lead of Jerome and Osborne, will match every dollar put up by Mr. Hearst with one of their own. The Jerome gress was the unanimous adoption of men are confident of winning the opena resolution of sympathy with the ing rounds at the state convention be-Russian people in their desire for a cause of their control of the state committee. The Democratic state committee has the appointment of the temporary chairman of the convention, and the temporary chairman appoints the committee on credentials. It is understood that the conservatives, through the credentials committee, will hold that the delegates instructed for Hearst have no standing in a Democratic convention because of the fact that Hearst is the candidate of an organization hostile to the regular democracy.
