City Defendant in Three, Damages Asked Amounting to $15,500.

Thirteen cases have been entered with the local master at the county buildings, for the non-jury sitting of the Supreme Court on June 16th at 2 p.m. (new time), before the Chief Justice of the King's Bench, Sir Glenholme Falconbridge, Arthur T. Bennett, through his guardian, William T. Bennett, is suing Charles Stewart for $2,000 damages and costs of action as a result of injuries received when struck by defendants' auto on Dundas street, near Oakland avenue. Plaintiff was riding a bicycle, and alleges negligence on the part of the defendant, which is denied. E. T. Essery is acting for Bennett and Purdom & Purdom are

John Morrison, through his solicitor.

Meredith, solicitor, claims that defendants are improperly joined, and that notice of writ'was not served upon their one month before action, and on these grounds ask claim to be dismissed. O'Dell & Mitchell, through the same solicitors, also are suing the city of London and public utilities commission for $3,000 damages incurred on the same date by the flooding of their cellar, adjoiring the Brownies Store. The same defence is offered in fise case as above.

Courty Sues City.

The County of Middlesex, through I. C. Elliott, is suing the city of London of $7,500, under the highways improvement act, for suburban roads, claiming the city liable for a similar provenant amount as expended on these roads by the county. The defendants allege that she would be able to keep up the good record of the club.

In the meantime he is working with a view to evolving a house which will comply with the regulations, and which can be built for about $1.500. He says he is finding this a very difficult proposition indeed.

Saskatchewan Publisher Here

On Crops.

W. B. Telfer, publisher of the Humholdt (Sask.) Journal, and a cousin of Hon. Walter Scott, a former premier of Saskatchewan, is visiting in the city and Middlesex County. Mr. Telfer says it is doubtful if the west ever before enjoyed such solid prosperity as at the present time. The last two years have given farmers a rich return on crops, and there is a large immigration from the United States.

"I will be much surprised if practically all the Unionist members from the west do not leave the Government because of the lack of relief in the tariff proposals," said the western publisher. "The benefits of free trade were shown in the admission of tractors duty free. The west bought enormous numbers because of the consequent reduction in price, and this one phase of the question indicated what cheaper machinery means to the country. At the same time we are not expecting absolute for the state of the consequent reduction in the country. of Saskatchewan, is visiting in the
