

New, Newsy
NewsLONG SHOT PLAYERS
HAVE PROSPEROUS
DAY AT CLEVELANDPunch Bowl and Gilbert N.
Among Good Prices Coming In.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Oct. 21.—Santa Claus arrived at Rockport racetrack this afternoon more than two months ahead of schedule, and distributed presents generously among race fans, who visited mutuels in search of long shots.

Split heats, big mutuels prices, summer weather and big fields featured the day's events and afforded excellent entertainment to the largest crowd that has ever visited the oval.

Favorites didn't have a very good day. Louis De Lopez was one of the best. He captured the first division of 2:19 trot by taking first two heats. He trotted a good race despite the fact he was a little lame, and finished fourth in third mile after he had the race sewed up.

The second division of 2:19 trot was "finished" when the setting sun made further racing impossible. Col. Mohel had won the first mile in this event and Fred M. the second. The third heat will be run as first event Friday afternoon. The mutuel fireworks started in the first regular race, when Punch Bowl romped home winner in the 2:18 pace, and made it possible for holders of $5 winning mutuels tickets to cash their pasteboards for $14.60. Place tickets brought $5.80.

Gilbert N. was the sweetest thing of the afternoon, $2 tickets cashing for $42.60. As Homer S. had won the first heat, a fourth mile was necessary. Spleen didn't do so much looking around in this heat, and was able to bring Punch Bowl home winner, of the race by a neck.

T. N. T. was the loud explosion in the 2:20 pace, and Edith Burns brought $50. T. N. T. finished seventh in the first mile and winning tickets on Trent, the winner, paid $8.40.

T. N. T. however, captured the second mile, and $2 mutuel tickets cashed for $85.80. Barney Burns, who had finished ninth in this mile, won third heat. Barney placed in the first heat.

MAJOR OR MINOR NEXT YEAR?

Hugh Duffy, manager of the Toronto Leafs, may be a major league manager next year if he sticks with Toronto and if Toronto makes a berth in a new circuit, loudly prophesied. Just yet Duffy hasn't even made the first "if" are. Until a few days ago Duffy had not communicated with the Leafs' president, and it turned out that he had been suffering from blood-poisoning ever since the team disbanded practically. When he did write, it was to steer clear of the question of next year and point out to the Toronto Prexy that the Leafs were in great shape to get going next spring with the addition of three pitchers and an outfielder.

LONDON C. I. BEATEN
8-7 BY WOODSTOCK
COLLEGIATE SQUADExhibition Game at Queen's Park Drew Small Crowd of Fans.

Before a small crowd of Rugby fans, London C. I. fourteen were beaten by Woodstock Collegiate, 8-7, out at Queen's Park. Dunlop's unconverted touchdown in the fourth quarter, dead-line kick and two goals kicked from try in the first period, was Woodstock's method of scoring.

London grabbed a point in the first quarter, and in the last seconds tore through for a touch, which was unconverted. The L. C. I. will meet Woodstock College on Saturday afternoon in an exhibition at Woodstock.

The London line was: Scrimmage, Tourkie, Fitzgerald, Williams; inside, Mitchell, Murphy; middle, Wilkins, Smith; outside, Cowper, Crittle; quarter, Lindsay; half backs, Seaford, Wilson, Cleghorn; flying wing, Lawrence. Referee—Gordon Henderson, London. Umpire—Anthony, Woodstock.

YANKEES WILL CONTINUE USE OF GIANTS' PARK

New York, Oct. 21.—The New York Yankees will continue to play their local baseball games at the Polo Grounds, the home of the New York Giants, at least through the 1922 season. An agreement to this effect by the managements of the two teams was announced today, reversing an earlier announcement that the Giants' management had decided to terminate joint use of the park after 1921.

The Yankees' plans for building a new baseball park here have been temporarily abandoned.

RYERSON AND EMPRESS AVENUE ENTER
BASKETBALL FINALS

Two interesting games of basketball were played at Tecumseh school on Wednesday. Teams from the four winning schools in the second series entered the semi-finals.

Amid wild cheers from their respective rooters, Empress avenue and Ryerson schools went on to the court. Twenty-five minutes later the victory was won 30-3 by Empress avenue. St. George's and Ryerson played a fast second game, Ryerson winning, 18-15.

Members of the league are looking forward with keen interest to the finals, which are to be played at Ealing on Friday between Ryerson and Empress avenue.

MAJORS IN RACE FOR MINOR LEAGUE FAVOR

Heydler and Eleven Stand Pats Want Ear of Minors and Ban and Faithful Five Must Fill Up Three Vacancies With Minor Clubs.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—In the hurried dash for the support of the minors, John A. Heydler and the eleven club owners who follow him seem to have won them over to their idea of new baseball.

At present only two courses are open to Ban Johnson and his "faithful five." They must either join the Heydler faction before November 5, or start on a quest of three new clubs to fill their league.

Without the support of the minors this would be almost hopeless. Three new clubs would require at the very least 45 players, and the five clubs remaining with Johnson in the present controversy are not sufficiently fortified in power and members to divide the minors.

It therefore seems that the odds in a fight to a decision will go up on the team that the minors fall in behind.

Two of the minor league heads have aligned themselves with Heydler in his campaign for a change in baseball's government in messages to the writer. "The majority of the minors favor the Loecker plan with a few reservations. I am strong for Comiskey and clean baseball," J. W. Morris, president of the Texas League, wired today.

"I do not believe the American League should be disorganized or disrupted," wired William H. McCarthy, president of the Pacific Coast League, who is fighting "crooked baseball" in his own league. "But do strongly advocate a get-together policy which will eliminate the differences of the past and produce a plan, whether it be the Loecker of the present agreement changed to remedy whatever ills exist. This is no time for splitting hairs. The future of baseball should be the only consideration."

Minors Meet Nov. 9.

"Concerted action will be taken by the minors when the major league committee presents its plans at our annual meeting in Kansas City, November 9, 10 and 11," said J. H. Farrell, secretary of the National Association.

The radical stand taken by Heydler and his eleven clubs in giving Johnson and his five an ultimatum with a time limit to "see the light" may have been caused by evidence that the minors were with them.

The National League chief has been assured of support by other minor league heads, including Walter Rose, Florida State League; M. A. Cantillon, South Dakota League; Frank Miley, Western League; J. V. Morrison, Blue Ridge League, and J. C. Leichter, Western Association.

Although Thomas Hickey, president of the American Association, has not expressed himself, his stand may be influenced by the following of his club owners, who have wired their endorsement to Heydler; William C. Smith, Indianapolis; Otto Dorchert, Milwaukee; Roger Brenahan, Toledo; George Muebach, Kansas City; George

K. Belden, Minneapolis; W. W. Knebelcamp, Louisville.

THE JENNINGS NICHE

The Cleveland Plain Dealer says of Jennings' departure from Detroit: "Detroit's three claims to fame. And now there are but two. For "Ee-yah!" will resound no more as Detroit's slogan. Hugh Jennings, whose name has long been synonymous with Detroit, passes into the cold outer world."

Jennings possesses one of those individual personalities which make men notable in a world where most of us are prone to do what the crowd does. It was Jennings' way to chew grass, to stand on one leg and holler "Ee-yah!" Nothing remarkable in any of these exercises. But no one else had done them. No one else could do them with the verve and sincerity of Jennings. Were any other manager or coach to holler "Ee-yah!" he would be set down as a weak and futile copyist.

The antics of Jennings were not the substance of his originality, but merely the outward symptoms. Jennings' way of leading was all his own. Never a "scraper" or a "grouch," Jennings possessed all the requisite aggressiveness. Thrice he led Detroit to victory, and many other times he fell but a little short of the goal. He added much to Detroit's fame. Belle Isle and Henry Ford will be lonely without him.

There is much sentiment in baseball, but there is no mitigation of the punishment of a loser. Lately Hugh Jennings has won no championships. And so Hugh Jennings must step aside to let someone else try. There is enough sentiment in baseball to make thousands of non-Detroit fans hope that in some other field of baseball endeavor Hugh Jennings will recover his prestige. For Hugh Jennings is a fine man and a fine leader, and the Americans who like baseball like Hughes.
