PROMINENT SINGER PROSTRATED BY LA GRIPPE

Thomas P. Macdonald, a prominent singer of Teeswater, tells how PSYCHINE restored him to perfect health after a severe attack of La Grippe, PSYCHINE restored him to perfect health after a severe attack of La Grippe, which robbed him of his voice. He says, "Six years ago I became a victim to La Grippe and had it in its worst form. The attack was unusually severe, and left me in terribly bad shape. I was utterly prostrated; weak, and run down left me in terribly bad shape. I was utterly prostrated; weak, and run down left me in terribly bad shape. I was utterly prostrated; weak, and run down left me in terribly bad shape. I was utterly prostrated is weak, and run down left me in terribly bad shape. I was utterly prostrated is weak, and run down entirely. My voice also completely gave out, and my lungs seemed to be seriously affected. People who knew me, thought I was not long for this world." ''I had for years been a member of our Church choir, and accustomed to singing at concerts and other entertainments, but the doctor told me that I could never home to do so any more, as it was impossible to cure me in the state I was then in." "One day I saw in the paper what PSYCHINE had done for others, and thought I would give it a trial, so I sent for a sample bottle. This gave me such immediate relief, and helped me so, that I determined to keep on with it at all immediate relief, and helped me so, that I determined to keep on with it at all icosts, and in spite of what the doctor had said. In an incredibly short space of time I was completely restored, and my voice was soon in grand shape again. They used to tell me that a breath of wind would blow me away, I had got so thin, but PSYCHINE built me up in no time; I am a pretty solid specimen of humanity to-day, having gained in weight and put on flesh all the time." "I am stronger and better to-day than I have ever been in my life before. PSYCHINE d d wonders for me, and really I do not think there is anything like it for combating the after effects of that scourge LA GRIPPE."
