Rev. Father Whalen Said to Be Mgr. Sabretti's Choice.
MONTREAL, July 15.—(Special.)—Le Canada contributes the following despatch from Ottawa, touching the question as to whether the next archbishop of Ottawa will be an English or a French-speaking priest: "The French-speaking priests are at last under the impression that Mgr. Sabretti's candidate is the Rev. Father Whalen, an Irish priest of distinction. I am told, however, that Mgr. THEIR GRIES UNHEEDED YOUNG WOMEN DROWN

Tragedy in Ottawa River—Campers Thought Shouting Was in Jest.
OTTAWA, July 15.—Dorothy and Jennie Green, hotel maids, aged 23 and 32, were drowned during the night near Aylmer, Que., a summer resort. Their escorts, L. Loyer and E. Guerin, were rescued in an exhausted condition.
They were crossing the river about 11 o'clock last night in an old flat-bottomed boat which began to leak. Their shouts for help were ignored, because of the habit of boating parties to make such noises without regard to the fact that they were not until 2 o'clock this morning that attention was paid to them.
The men were found clinging to the overturned craft. Loyer and the girls could not swim.
One of the sisters had been helped several times, when suddenly she was being dragged back on to the boat top her coat came off, and she sank to the bottom. The other sister was also forced to let go her hold. Their home was in Richmond, Ont. There is about 40 feet of water at the spot.
