THE BAPTIST MINISTERS.

(Maritime Baptist.)

On March 20, 1916, Major W. H. Belyea died in the city of St. John, N. B., after a long illness.

The death of Rev. Manuel Nales occurred at his home at Oshag, N. B., on March 6th, after a short illness due to pneumonia.

Rev. R. E. Durke, after a brief but successful pastorate, has resigned his charge at Cambridge, N. B. His phys- ician has advised him to seek at once a climate which is less trying.

Major E. C. Weyman, who went over seas with the 29th Battalion and who has been kept in England to assist in training recruits, has at last been per- mitted to proceed to the front and is probably now in France.

The many friends of E. M. Sproll, who has given this paper so many years of faithful service as business man- ager, will be glad to know that he is once more able to come to the office and at- tend to his accustomed duties after hav- ing been kept at home for nearly two weeks by a stubborn and troublesome cold.

Major Eric MacDonald seems about to receive a higher rank and new honors. He has been recalled from France to England to take a commanding officer's course. His honored father, Capt. (Rev.) J. H. MacDonald, has also been recalled to the Canadian Pacific Office, for the highest grade sweeping powder on the market, having been pub- licly commended for his services. Ask your dealer for Collect-O-Dust, the sweeping powder that satisfies. 40 per cent dis- infectant. Dealers supplied—R. J. Logan, Agent, 225 Paddock street, Phone Main 3226-21.

Rev. S. W. Schurman, of Hillsboro, N. B., has accepted a call extended by the church at Gloucester. He will close his work at Hillsboro in June.

A service of much interest was held in the church at Tremont, N. S., on Sunday, March 4th. It was a memorial service in honor of Lieut. George Mac- Gregor, who was killed in action in France nearly four months ago. The service was held for a long time in uncer- tainty. He was a son of Rev. E. S. MacGregor, of Chester, N. S., and was a member of the church at Tremont.

Rev. A. T. Dykeman has been called to the pastorate of Zion church, Yar- mouth, and will begin his ministry there the first of May.

Rev. K. M. Vailis was ordained on
