What Light Wines And Beers Will Do

Continue to Make Havoc of Families and Force Little Children Into Public Institutions — Mothers, Fathers, Think Not Only of Your Children But Those of Others July 10th.

The intelligent voter in the coming election will not have in mind the danger of the lemon extract, the con-drunkard or the social whirl, but the innocent little children such represented by the accompanying pic-the originals of which had to be under institutional care by the al courts, although but for a drunken and Walter D. Thompson chairman of Guys, as leaders. Plans were made for meetings when larger numbers from the churches and temperance organizations will be present.

Paul Parks, six-year-old son of James P. Parks, 250 Main street, was struck by a slowly moving car last night while playing in Main street. He was treated by Hon. Dr. W. F. Roberts and his injuries were found to be slight.

TEMPERANCE MEETING.
The initial meeting of a few of the workers from Guys and Brooks Wards was held last evening in the school room of the Carleton Methodist church. After a general discussion of plans and methods the meeting resolved itself into separate meetings of the two wards with Norman P. McLeod chairman of Brooks

FOOD RIOTS IN SEVERAL CITIES OF GERMANY

Berlin, June 30.—Food disturbances occurred in the central markets here yesterday and several arrests were made. A large body of women marched to the chancellery and vainly sought an interview with Chancellor Fehrenbach, to protest against the higher cost of food. At Frankfurt there were additional disorders. Five persons were killed in the recent riots in Hamburg, according to an official report. During disturbances at Wurzburg yesterday the troops fired wounding several persons.
