High School Entrance Examination Pass Lists

Chairman's Gold Medal Won By
Walter Hughes

Miss Alice M. Fulton in Second Place—Few Failures Among
380 Who Took Examinations—
Half in First Division

In the high school entrance examination results just announced, Walter Hughes of St. Peter's school, the last with a total of 889 marks out of a possible 1000, and carries off the chairman's gold medal. Alice M. Fulton, of Albert school, is a close second, with 888 to her credit, and Leonard Ellis with 882 is not far behind. Walter Hughes' standing in all subjects was remarkably good, but he received his highest marks for nature study and health subjects in which he made 189 marks out of a possible 150.

The results are very gratifying from the fact that the failures are exceptionally few and nearly half of the students who took the examination passed in the first division. Altogether 880 candidates entered and six were not examined. Of those who wrote the examinations 166 passed in the first division, 125 in the second division, and fifty-seven in the third division.

Those who gained the highest marks in order are as follows:
1st, Walter Hughes, St. Peter's school, 889; 2nd, Alice M. Fulton, Albert school, 888; 3rd, Leonard Ellis, 882; 4th, Madeline Sullivan, 877; 5th, Harriet Roberts, 874; 6th, Grace Robinson, 874; 7th, George Purdy, 874; 8th, Rita Lombard, 869; 9th, Marion Dever, 867; 10th, James McInerney, 867; 11th, Evelyn McBride, 865; 12th, Imelda Le Couffe, 860; 13th, Rose McGill, 860; 14th, Eileen Brannan, 857; 15th, Greta Gilbert, 856; 16th, Helen Lawlor, 855.

CRITICISM OF THE CARSON SPEECH

Newspapers of All Parties Take It Up

Particular Point Made of Reference to United States and Reiteration of Threat to Call Out Ulster Volunteers; Proceedings in Commons

London, July 16.—Sir Edward Carson's speech on last Saturday has brought the Ulster leader under the lash of the newspapers of all parties, primarily on account of his reference to the United States, which are criticized as tactless and calculated to breed bad blood between the two nations, and, secondly, because he reiterated his old threat to call out the Ulster volunteers to resist any attempt to place the home rule act in operation.

The labor organs are not slow to point out how such incitement to "direct action" could be improved upon in the industrial field for securing political ends. The Liberal pro-Irish papers are equally quick to point out that in point of tactics there is no difference between "King de Valera" and "King Carson."

The matter came up in the House of Commons last night when the speaker gave John Robert Clines, Laborite, permission to move adjournment of the government for the purpose of challenging the government to set the law in motion against Sir Edward Carson for a speech inciting violence and endangering the safety of the realm. Mr. Clines said there were many poor ill-used men now in prison for saying less harmful things than Carson had said. It was the government's duty to see that the law was equally enforced. Mr. Clines described Sir Edward Carson as the "arch apostle of direct action."

Lord Hugh Cecil and other Unionist members condemned Carson's remarks as indefensible. The attorney-general, Sir Gordon Hewart, declared that the allegation that Sir Edward Carson's speeches incited to a breach of the law and violence had broken down. There was nothing in the speech in question upon which it was possible to found legal proceedings. The passage referring to the calling out of volunteers was hypothetical and contingent on depriving Ulster people of their rights as British subjects, and no body proposed to do. However much the speech might be regretted at a time like this, there was no which could be set in motion as no offence had been committed.

MURDER, DECLARES CORONER'S JURY

Ontario Hermit's Skull Was Fractured—The Guilty Unknown

Montreal, July 17.—That Leon Demers, a Shawbridge hermit, was murdered was the conclusion of the coroner's jury, after the inquest held yesterday afternoon. The coroner questioned two boys of the Shawbridge boys farm and industrial school who had discovered the body. They told how, when in search of bones on a rubbish dump near the institution, they noticed a rope, one end of which was hidden under a pile of dead leaves. They found that the rope was tied to the neck of a dead body in an advance state of decomposition. The skull was broken in on the top. Dr. Demers said that the break could not have come from a self-inflicted blow; there was no bruise on the head, but he was caused by the fracture of the skull.

The jurors recommended that further investigations be made for the uncovering of the guilty ones.

CAT GIVES ALARM MURDER DISCOVERED

New York, July 17.—A yowling cat ran into the flat of Mrs. Mary Lichter on the third floor of 118 Stanton street, leaped at the woman and darted into the hallway. The cat returned, still crying, and Mrs. Lichter kicked it away. But the cat persisted and continued running into the flat, yowling, until Mrs. Lichter called the police.

The cat made for the flat next door, that of Mrs. Brainshaw Kucharsky, who was asleep. In the bedroom Mrs. Lichter found the body of her neighbor on the floor, her head under the bed. She called the police.

Assistant Medical Examiner Homans discovered marks indicating the woman had been strangled to death. There were no bruises on the head, lips and chest. A small bag that contained $250 had been torn from her wrist. Chairs in the room were upset. The assistants also took a Third Loan Liberty bond of $100, two bank books totalling $2,750, two gold watches and a gold chain.

MAINED SOLDIERS AND THE MASONIC FRATERNITY

Toronto, July 17.—Soldiers maimed in war are eligible to become members of the Masonic fraternity, provided they are capable of learning the art of Masonry. The grand lodge of Canada in Ontario has decided here yesterday that any soldier or otherwise will be left to each individual lodge, subject to appeal to the grand lodge, whose decision will be final.

INTERESTING FIND ON HON. A. J. BALFOUR'S ESTATE

Edinburgh, June 16.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press)—A hoard of battered silver plate dating back to the fourth century has been found on the estate, near here, of the British foreign minister, Hon. A. J. Balfour. It is described as one of the most remarkable archaeological discoveries ever made in Northern Europe. Mr. Balfour had transferred to the Queen street museum in this city. The silver is said to be exceptionally pure.

The site of the discovery is known as Traprain Law. It was once a fortified area, which covers sixty acres and gives evidence of occupation at intervals during the first four centuries of the Christian era. It is believed to have been at one time the site of a Celtic settlement under Roman rule. The latest inhabitants are thought to have been Saxon pirates.

Excavators for the Queen street museum struck a small pit which was filled to the brim with battered silver vessels and a few coins of the Emperors Valens and Gratian. The vessels were crushed and disfigured indicating that they were regarded as booty and intended for the melting pot. They include flagons, chalices, platters, bowls and spoons. On them can be deciphered Christian symbols, such as Chi-Rho, Alpha, Omega and Iesus Christus. Scenes portrayed in relief are mainly from Bible history.

The gem of the collection is a richly decorated flask, beautifully embossed and bearing the inscription, "Dymiaocis-lapi," which has not yet been translated. Archaeologists have not been able to say whether the vessels were spoils taken from one single church or from different places. Some of the silver is gilded, some enamelled, and some inlaid with gold.

MORE FUNDS TO CARRY ON GOOD WORK ARE NEEDED

Annual Meeting Hears Reports
Op Home for Incurables

DEFICIT OF $2,000 IN YEAR

Treasurer Suggests Concerted Move to Add to Treasury—Busy Year in Caring For the Seriously Afflicted Is Told Of

The need for more funds to carry on the work was one of the outstanding features of the reports submitted at the annual meeting of the St. John Home for Incurables which was held this afternoon in the institution. The reports show a busy and successful year in carrying on a work which has resulted in such greatly to the comfort and well-being of the seriously afflicted. The expenses of the last year exceeded the income by about $2,000, the deficit being met by drawing on the balance on hand.

Mr. Walker has shown in the Home and of the splendid service he has rendered in so many ways. His time, money, his administrative ability and his professional knowledge and skill have all been freely and generously given and the success of the Home is, in a larger measure than is generally realized, due to his interest and his efforts.

At the beginning of the year, in July last, there were 18 females. During the year, 12 males and 13 females; 17 applications were considered, 10 males and 7 females; 11 were accepted, 6 males and 5 females; 6 were refused, 4 males and 2 females; 8 patients died, 3 males and 5 females. There are now in the Home 28 patients, 15 males and 13 females.

The report of the treasurer showing the exact condition of our finances shows also reasons why, in the present increase throughout the year and extending to the future, it is advisable to consider a change in the scale of charges for paying patients. Two bequests were received during the year, $2,000 from the estate of Miss Maria Grosvenor Murray and $1,250 from the estate of George A. Shaw.

The additions to our capital are most welcome aids in meeting steadily growing operating cost. To the medical staff and the women's aid committee our thanks are due for invaluable assistance. The home makes many demands on the time of busy physicians and the response is always prompt. Details of the Women's Aid Committee work are set out in the report of the year, and the members of the committee have also much to say in appreciation of their labors in the interest of the home and through them to thank the visiting clergymen of various denominations for their labor of love in maintaining the Sunday services.

Respectfully submitted,
J. S. GREGORY, Vice-President.

The Treasurer
St. John, N. B., July 17, 1919.
To the Subscribers to the St. John Home for Incurables.

Ladies and Gentlemen—The fact that we start the year with a balance of only $2,336.00, and must in a very few days pay out the larger part of this for our winter's fuel supply, is the feature of our financial statement to which it seems wise to refer particularly. A year ago our balance was $4,220.37. We therefore spent $2,184.37 more on maintenance than we received from our various revenue sources. Two bequests aggregating $2,000 have increased the capital funds to $115,922.10, making the aggregate value of all interest bearing funds in our treasurer's hands, including funeral deposits, and life support advances, together with cash on hand, $126,477.28, as compared with $124,222.57 a year ago. The revenue account for the year shows:

1918.	Cr.
July 6, By balance	$ 4,220.37
1919.
July 6, Donations	350.00
Annual members	18.00
Interest	5,951.19
Paying patients	2,807.50
	$13,647.06
1919.	Dr.
July 6, To maintenance	$ 8,301.24
Wages	3,009.82
Balance	2,336.00
	$13,647.06

The year's expenditure for maintenance and wages was $11,311.06, an increase of $1,011.80 over the previous year. There was an increase of $29.50 in the receipts from paying patients. Consideration of these figures will probably suggest to the board the wisdom of some readjustment of our scale of rates for paying patients, or of a concerted movement to sufficiently increase the capital to provide revenue to meet the ever-growing cost of operating. Appended hereto is statement of our investments, duly audited. Respectfully submitted,

The Auditor.
To the President and Members of the Board, Home for Incurables.

Ladies and Gentlemen—I have made an audit of the receipts and disbursements for the year ending July 6, 1919, as kept by your treasurer, and have found proper vouchers accounting for the funds for your institution. I have also checked over the bonds stock certificates and mortgages in the Bank of Nova Scotia vault, and found them to correspond with list attached to treasurer's report, amounting with cash on hand to $126,477.28. Respectfully submitted,
P. F. BLANCHET, Auditor.

Women's Auxiliary.
Ladies and Gentlemen.—The past year has not been an easy one for the Ladies' Aid committee of the Home for Incurables. Sickness and bereavement have been some of its members; others have been absent. Much sympathy is felt for the president, Mrs. Alward, in her regretted by patients and staff. Those who have been able to endeavor, with even more than the usual most commendable zeal, to assist the board of management in maintaining the efficiency of their noble charity, promoting the welfare, spiritual and bodily, of those who dwell within its walls.

Service has been held every Sunday throughout the year and attended by members of your committee, who think no effort to ensure the continuance of the work of joy and comfort in the Home too great. Sincere gratitude is felt towards the clergy of the city who, with the kind assistance of their choirs, have carried on these ministrations so long and so earnestly. During the time of quarantine the service of song, conducted by a few very faithful friends, was much enjoyed.

For two years past it has been found somewhat difficult to keep up the admirable system of weekly visiting by the Ladies' Aid, supplementing the visits of the members of the board. Visiting by the general public has also much fallen off. The patients mourn the change, and the board is again with regret.

The sum of $100 was kindly collected by the committee to aid in replenishing the necessary supply of linen. Special treats have been provided at festive seasons during the year. In October a feast of cheese, biscuits, fruit and other Thanksgiving fare was enjoyed; at Christmas large trees stood in the halls, decked with suitable gifts, fruit and sweets were bestowed, and plentiful holiday cheer adorned the Christmas and New Year's dinners; with Easter came eggs, fruit and boxes of candy, and flowering plants to beautify the Home.

Occasionally additional pleasures are arranged for by thoughtful and generous friends, and how keenly appreciated!
