cheered by the largest crowd. The Franklins won, 6 to 4.

Last night the Pirates defeated the Buffaloes, 6 to 4, but the latter protested the game, charging that one of the Pirate players does not live in the south end. This will be investigated.

Perhaps it was the fog, which wove webs of grey gauze on the clothing of the onlookers. Some said it was the umpire. Others said it was the umpire that last night's game was not quite up to the mark. There were disputes in which the teams did not leave their captains to do the disputing. There was too much gratuitous advice from members of teams not playing, and from small boys. There was too much crowding up to the base line near the, home plate. Aside from these features, however, the teams played a good five-

The game credited to the Pirates has been protested by the Victorias, and if the protest is allowed it will of course change the relative standing.

The game on Wednesday night between the Franklins and Buffalos was the bet of the series to date and was cheered by the largest crowd. The Franklins won, 6 to 4.
