The Man In The Street

Many people who had planned a European trip for this fall, should find the exhibition a source of diversion... The censor is certainly demonstrating the old proverb about the pen being mightier, etc.

We can only form a hazy idea of what Liege looks like now, but its boulevards can't be very much worse than the lower end of Main Street.

One of the motives of the "Safety First" promoters in Germany, in future will probably be "Don't try to march through Belgium."

Why Not Reverse the Order? When a truly happy moment it must be for the poor laboring man who has been working hard from 7 a. m. to 5 p. m. when the knock-off whistle blows and he is allowed the distinguished privilege of riding home in the street cars with the ladies who have been shopping or making social calls, during the afternoon. Think of the pleasure it must afford him to gallantly lend the seat for which he has been yearning after hours of toil, to Mrs. Five-o'clock Homemaker, so that she may enjoy the strength of his tired limbs while she gazes with the woman beside her, who has likewise captured a seat from a man with a dinner-pail, though both of them could easily have avoided the crowded car and gone home even ten minutes before the workmen were through. But, then this thing happens so often that the man whose face is grimed with the dirt of the foundry, or whose body is stiff after a day of labor, is used to it and a ride home with the enjoyment of a seat all the way would be a happening rare, indeed.

It must be understood that the housewives being given the soldiers going away are not the kind you think about first.

Have you given your bit to the Patriotic Fund?

With the schools opening Monday, we'll probably hear some more bright things that Willie always says. But why is his name always Willie?

One of the greatest pleasures we had this week was having our paragon hair clipped by a gentlemanly barber who couldn't say what would happen to the hairdresser three months from now. And the best of it was he didn't try to explain the present plan of campaign.

THE NEW POST OFFICE

Nearly a Hundred Men at Work—Several Leave For the War

The construction work on the new post office is now about half done and, in spite of the war, the work is being rushed. Several of the men employed on the job have left to join the army but their places have been refilled and ninety men are now employed. The brick walls in the rear are rising rapidly and it is expected that the brick work will be completed by October 1. Twenty bricklayers are laying upwards of 20,000 bricks a day. The front of the building is being erected as fast as the large stones, which are brought from Miramichi quarries, can be procured inside, the last of the four concrete floors is now being laid. It is expected that the roof will be finished by October 15.

W. G. Watters to D. A. McHugh, property in Simonds. Assignments of leasehold properties recorded this week were: Peter Clinch to F. H. Foster, property in St. John.

Francis Kerr to Jennie G., wife of C. E. Colwell, property in Acadia street. Adams, John Owens to John Glynn, property in St. Patrick street.

A MOTHER'S PROTEST.

To the Editor of the Times, Sir:—Will you kindly allow me, through the medium of your valuable paper to point out what a great mistake or what want of thought there is about our dear ones going away. Why cannot the railroad authorities keep the public from the trains so as to allow the parents and wives only to pass to say good-bye to their loved ones (perhaps forever) without being pushed and very roughly used, the natural desire to say the last good-bye to our sons, for such was my experience last evening. My coat was nearly torn off and my bracelet broken and my hat torn almost from my head by the supposed good send off's and after all I had to endure, I could not get close enough to see my son pass in my train. I think if some of the young girls that helped to swell the crowd so unnecessarily would try to give a little time to knit some socks for the departing brave fellows we could give these young ladies kinder thoughts.

I remain, Yours Very Respectfully, A SOBROWING MOTHER

WORK ON THE FARM

Alleviation of Conditions Being Taken by Joint Authorities

SCHEME BEING PLANNED

Central Body Appointed by Dominion and Provinces to Have Charge

Ottawa, Aug. 28.—W. K. McNaught, of Toronto has been in Ottawa again in connection with the proposal that the Dominion and provincial governments cooperate in some scheme for the distribution of employment. The Ontario government will obtain information as to the amount of farm labor which is wanted in the agricultural districts of that province and details as to wages and living conditions generally. Other provinces will probably do similar work, and the information so furnished will be placed in the possession of a central body made up of representatives of the provinces.

It is thought that a large number of men who are out of employment in the cities would be willing to take farm work and provide themselves with a means of livelihood in the winter even if the remuneration is not great. The plan has not been completed in all its details, but it is expected that the general scheme will be agreed upon as a result of the conferences which are now taking place. One of the questions to be dealt with will be that of transportation and the aid of the Dominion may be asked in regard to this.

LOCAL NEWS

WANTS TO INVEST. The board of trade received a call yesterday from a gentleman who wishes to invest in a small shoe, dry goods, or general business.

WEDDING STATISTICS. Five marriages and thirteen births, seven deaths and six males, have been recorded with Registrar J. B. Jones during the week.

GIVEN CHECK FOR $110. The secretary of the Patriotic Fund has received a check for $110 from T. J. Phillips, 218 Union street, being 25 per cent of the ice cream and soda sold on "Patriotic Day" August 27, in accordance with his offer to the executive committee.

ASKED TO ATTEND. The secretary of the board of trade has received the official call of the International Irrigation Congress to be held in Calgary, October 3 to 9. The board of trade is entitled to send five delegates to this congress. It is expected that able speakers will be present from the United States to assist Canadian speakers in the discussions that are to take place.

LIVE STOCK JUDGES. Honorable A. Forsey, secretary of the exhibition, has appointed a jury of live stock judges. Ottawa, announcing the following judges who have already been appointed for the live stock exhibition: Messrs. John Vipond; Brooklin, Ontario; beef cattle and sheep, Claude Bald, Causton, Ontario; Argentine ewes, James Edden, Danes, P. Q. Holsteins, A. C. Holman, Brudenri, Ontario; Seth Jones of Sussex, has been named judge of ponies. Other judges will be arranged for later.

THE SCHOOLS. Perhaps the busiest recruiting depot in the city yesterday was the office of the secretary of the school board, where a host of youthful "soldiers" were being "signed on," not for foreign service but for local training. They were there to take out permits to attend the opening of the city schools on Monday. In the awaiting space between applicants, the secretary, Mr. Leavitt, informed the Times man that the number of permits issued was about up to the number handed out last year and from present indications there would be no great increase in the school attendance this term. There have been no announcements yet of any change in the teaching staffs.

NO PRIEST OF THAT NAME. In the case of the King versus George Thomas Rooney, charged with non support of Margaret M. W. Seely, who claims to be his wife, begun in the Halifax police court yesterday afternoon, Rev. Father McQuillan of St. Mary's Cathedral, gave evidence. The records of the Roman Catholic church for 1911 showed that Rev. Father Quinn was rector of St. Patrick's church, St. Paul, Minas, where the wedding was said to have taken place and that there was no Redemptorist priest by the name of Rev. Arthur Dunn in the United States. The name of Arthur Dunn was signed to a marriage certificate produced by the plaintiff. The case was adjourned until the rector of St. Patrick's church can be communicated with.

DEATH OF MRS. JOSEPH TOTTEN. The death of Mrs. Joseph Totten occurred at one o'clock this morning at her home, 178 Metcalf street. She is survived by her husband, five sisters and one brother. The sisters are Mrs. Wilson McWhinney, Mace's Bay; Mrs. Alice Evans, West St. John; Mrs. Martha Totten, Fairville; Mrs. M. J. McCaughern, city; Mrs. Alice Totten, North End, and the brother, James Thompson, Richibucto. Before her marriage she was Miss Augusta Thompson, daughter of the late Edward and Martha Thompson of Musquash. The funeral will take place on Monday afternoon from her late residence, following the service which will be held at the house at two o'clock.

ADOGRAM No. 16 A cat can spend much time chasing her shadow—but it doesn't get her anywhere. Some national advertisers more in circles and wonder why they don't arrive. The newspaper is the direct route from producer to consumer for newspaper advertising not only creates buying demand, but inspires in dealers a desire to sell the advertised goods. NATIONAL ADVERTISERS NEED NEWSPAPERS.
