YOUNG TURKS' PARTY

IN DESPERATE BATTLE

The commander of the troops at Yildiz Klosk, and Schefket Pasha, the commander of the army of investment, are negotiating the surrender of the Yildiz garrison. Schefket demanded unconditional surrender by noon but at that hour he granted an extension of the time for four hours. It is understood that the Sultan is insisting on additional guarantees. Two white flags are flying from Yildiz Kiosk. The Sultan is unharmed and none of the members of his household were injured.
All is quiet within the royal palace.

BERLAN, April 24—The Constantinople correspondent of the Lokal Anzelger telegraphs that a number of Europeans were wounded in the fighting. It was reported that the correspondent of the London Times was killed at the Taxim barracks where the Sultan's troops put up a strong resistance. This statement cannot be verified and it was said later that the man killed was an American sightseer. The dragoman of the Austrian Embassy was wounded and it is reported that the secretary attached to the English Embassy was killed. The correspondent says also that the Yidiz
