

THE PINK LADY WINS FAVOR IN OPERA HOUSE

Large Audience Last Evening
Delighted with Excellent Musical Comedy—
Dancing the Feature.

With at least three excellent comedians, principals with singing voices, much better than the average of musical comedy as St. John sees it, and a superb dancing chorus, The Pink Lady was introduced to local theatre goers last evening. She comes direct from long runs in larger centres of music and drama and possibly that accounts for the fact that she is so well developed, for, be it understood, that the dame in pink is a decidedly sophisticated and lively young person. And she runs to dancing. For three solid acts last evening the dancing and the comedy were the features of an excellent production, one that in sumptuousness will rank with the best St. John has seen.

From a dancing standpoint the large chorus is superb. Also it pleases the eye and sings very well although little of the music in the production is ambitious but all of it catchy and whistleable. It was not built to live but for a summery show come up to all expectations.

The scene of the production is laid in France and most of the sprightly characters presented are of the French type. That in itself is something of a change for it is a distinct relief in musical comedies to find an impossible American character lurking around somewhere. As the Pink Lady is not an American effort but a free adaptation of "Le Sauter" from the French the reason for this very commendable fact is plain.

Briefly told, the story concerns the efforts of an impressionable young man to hide from his fiancée the identity of a "peach" with whom he has made a dinner date at a decided restaurant in the fastnesses of the forest of Compeigne, somewhere near Paris. The delectable dame who affiances is of more demure type and cepts his dinners and his affection is, of course, The Pink Lady while the very, very credulous. It may be remarked in passing that no St. John man, married or unmarried, could get away with any such story as the blythe young hero does when his best girl catches him tete-a-tete with the lady in pink. But it is a good show despite this little inconsistency.

The fun grows during the three acts until at the last when the scene is laid at the Sauter and Nymphs' ball it is furious but within bounds. The ball scene gives the production a special opportunity for dancing and in this it is seen at its best.

Of the principals in the very excellent company Miss Olga DeBauch was seen in the title role and she carried it splendidly. Endowed with much physical charm, a dainty and likeable personality, and a nicely modulated singing voice, she was delightful. Her singing numbers were not difficult and probably the best was "The Kiss Waltz" in the second act and "Beautiful Lady," rendered with Miss Moffatt and Mr. Meyer, in the last act. During the latter selection she was also heard to good effect in a violin selection played in a manner which showed much skill on the instrument.

Miss Moffatt, in the role of the credulous sweetheart, captivated the audience. Her duet with Mr. Deery in the first act was prettily sung, but her voice was heard to best effect in the last act in the "Beautiful Lady" selection.

Mr. Lennon in "I'm Going to be Married in June," sang well and his number was effectively rounded out by a graceful incidental dance. Mr. Mundy also sang well in "The Girl by the Saskatchewan" and contributed in no small degree to the comedy of the piece. Mr. McElhern in the role of Dondidier was very funny in an unctuous sort of way and the number "Donny Did" in the second act most effectively showed the ability of the chorus.

Splendid character comedy work was done by Miss Harvey as Madame Dondidier while Mr. Worthley and Mr. Lennon were equal to all demands in comedy roles. Mr. Worthley's solo in the first act "Bring Along the Camera," was one of the best items of the evening. Here, too, the sprightfulness of the chorus was well shown. The chorus is pretty and splendidly gowned. Particularly does this apply to "The Pink of Perfection" which they live up to their name.

The scenic investiture of the production is on an elaborate scale, the final scene, laid in the ball room in Paris, being particularly well handled. There was a large audience in attendance last evening and despite the announcement of the management that the curtain would rise promptly at 8.10 a large number of those in the bottom of the house came late thereby subjecting themselves to embarrassment and the portion already seated to much inconvenience. When the manager of the Opera House announces curtain for a certain time it is just as well to believe that the announcement was made in good faith.

The Pink Lady will continue to hold the boards all week and on Wednesday and Saturday afternoons. She is a most entertaining personae and brings a host of pretty girls with her.

MRS. EDWIN GOULD DECRIES IMMODEST DRESS.

Mrs. Edwin Gould

Mrs. Edwin Gould placed herself on record in an interview against immodest dress for women on the streets or at bathing beaches. "I am not in favor of freak or suggestive modes," said Mrs. Gould. "The extreme silt skirt to which objection has been taken in various parts of the country is not worn in New York by any of my friends, nor do I know any one who appears at bathing beaches in one-piece suits such as Chicago has forbidden."

WASHINGTON RELIEVED OVER TURN IN MEXICO

Dr. William Baynard Hale, who no longer hides his identity as the confidential envoy of President Wilson, called at the Embassy today and held a long conference with Ex-Governor Lind and Mr. O'Shaughnessy. No one at the conference would state what the first steps of the pacification plan were to be or when they were to be taken.

Frederico Gamboa, the new Mexican secretary for foreign relations, speaking today with regard to Mr. Lind's mission said it could scarcely be properly described as one of peace since no war existed between Mexico and the United States.

"I have great faith," the secretary said, "in the reasonableness of the judgment of the United States, and I have the conviction that the difficulties between Mexico and the United States soon will be adjusted."

Damage Was Slight.
An alarm was sent in from Box 27 about 11.30 o'clock last night for a quantity of smoke, which filled R. J. Armstrong's pool room and an adjoining store. After quite a hunt by the firemen the fire was found to have been in an old matting and a bag near the toilet in the basement of the pool room. Chief Blake told Mr. Armstrong that a man employed there had known where the fire was and had put it out and that he gave wrong information to the firemen. No damage was done by the fire.

AVIATOR IS BURIED WITH MILITARY HONORS

Airman Killed in Hydro-aeroplane Accident Given Soldier's Funeral — Pipers of Black Watch Play Lament.

Aldershot, Eng., Aug. 11.—The body of P. S. Cody, the Anglo-American aviator who was killed here in an hydro-aeroplane accident on August 7, was buried with military honors in the soldiers cemetery here this afternoon. Enormous crowds lined the route of the funeral procession, paying a splendid tribute to the popularity of the dead airman.

The coffin was mounted on a gun carriage and covered with the Union Jack. The pipers of the famous Black Watch (the 42nd Highlanders) headed the procession, playing a Scotch "lament" while the bands of the other regiments played funeral marches.

INVEST IN A GUARANTEED COMPANY AND PROTECT YOURSELF TAYLOR'S SILVER BLACK FOX COMPANY, LIMITED MONTAGUE, P. E. I.

The future of the Silver Black Fox Industry is thus described by Wesley P. Frost, United States Consul, Charlottetown, P. E. I.:

A LASTING INDUSTRY

"Confidence in the permanence of the market for the furs is based primarily on the fact that Black Fox Fur has from time immemorial been affected by the royal families of Europe and by persons of highest wealth and fashion. It is pointed out that the acceptance of this fur as the choicest and most valuable is time honored and not a vogue, and that its worth is almost as fully standardized as that of the diamond amongst precious stones."

Such is the mature decision of a disinterested observer. Granted this permanent industry and a steady demand with prices well maintained the Taylor's Silver Black Fox Company can confidently look forward to paying high profits to its shareholders.

THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN

The Taylor's Silver Black Fox Company and other Companies is that with this Company goes a guarantee that at the present market price for young foxes the shareholder is ensured a dividend of well over 40 p. c. at the least. The guarantee of an increase of not less than ten young foxes to be raised to September, 1914, means that whatever happens the shareholder is amply protected and that he will receive at least well over 40 p. c. But in the ordinary case the litters of seven pairs of foxes will number 18 to 21 at a moderate estimate; the shareholder in the Taylor's Company will then receive a profit that cannot be less than 40 to 45 p. c. and more probably will be between 60 p. c. and 80 p. c.

IF

The foxes of a Company without a guarantee have no pups the shareholders receive NO DIVIDEND, but whatever happens the shareholders of the Taylor's Company are ensured a profit of WELL OVER 40 P. C.

REMEMBER

The Taylor's Company has seven pairs of foxes of the best blood on the Island, several of the famous Dalton and Tuplin strains. The Manager, R. A. Taylor, is an experienced and successful fox breeder, and Manager of the Smith Company which has declared a dividend of 40 p. c.; the officials are all men of standing and well known; the ranch is one of the best on the Island, and the Company is backed by a GUARANTEE that amply protects the shareholder.

AS BREEDERS

The foxes will make a good showing. Two of the foxes are tested breeders; the balance are of excellent breeding stock, and will, according to the average, throw about three pups to a pair. This at current market prices means a profit in the neighborhood of 80 P. C.
