Rogers Strengthens Tiger Track Squad

Has Been Training for Three Weeks and is Now in Good Shape for Meet.

Princeton, N. J., July 21.—Bill Rogers, Princeton's star distance runner, joined the Tiger track squad here today. Rogers, the Princeton cross-country captain and the holder of the two-mile record in the Yale-Princeton dual meet, is in good shape as he has been training at Magnolia, Mass., for three weeks.

Princeton has three runners in training for the three-mile run against the Harvard team from present indications it is a toss up as to who will be selected. Foreman, the former interscholastic champion who started on the freshman team, and were guests from that may win him the place. Keene Fitzpatrick will hold a trial date this week to decide his entry.

Baker is another athlete who was permanently added to the team. The big hammer thrower and football player has been working near New York city and commencing to Princeton several times during the week to work out under Fitzpatrick's direction, and his throws indicate that he will be the man selected to oppose Nokes. As a result he has given up his position temporarily and will stay with the squad until the meet is over.

Spears and the freshman hammer man, Emory, are not out of the running as yet, but will have to improve to beat out the big blonde giant.

The four English athletes who spent the week-end at Princeton, left for Swampscott on Sunday morning and will train with their teammates during the remainder of the week.

The best of friendship was in evidence while the visitors were in Princeton, where they lived at the Princeton quarters and were guests at the training table. Fitzpatrick spent Saturday afternoon coaching the English runners, who got his advice as to the best training schedule on which to prepare for the coming meets.

Charles Halsey is the only member of the Princeton team who has not arrived here as yet. Halsey started from the coast on Saturday, where he won the junior national shotput championship. He is expected to join the team today.

Brilliant Stunts By Fielders Is Feature

President Heydler of the National Says Outfielding is Best He Has Ever Seen.

Brooklyn, July 21.—"I wonder if the fans appreciate the wonderful outfielding they have seen this year," remarked President John A. Heydler of the National League in a conversation on general baseball matters.

"Never before have I seen such wonderful outfielding as I have seen this year all over the circuit," continued the president. "I attend many games in Brooklyn, and the stunts pulled by Wheat, Myers and Griffith, and those pulled by the visiting outfielders are remarkable. Everybody is claiming that the ball more live by this year than ever before, and in my opinion that is undoubtedly true to some extent. I also read a great deal of criticism of the extra hitting, but it does not bear any comparison with the writers tell us that the lively ball shoots through the infield so rapidly that the infielders cannot hold up their end or live up to their reputations of previous years. There may be something in that, but it is compensated for to a certain extent by the outfielding, which is thrilling in the extreme."

"I do not know whether the ball is responsible or whether it has just happened that way, but I am safe in saying I have seen more sensational catches by outfielders here than I have ever seen in any two previous years. Outfield catches are a big factor in baseball and carry a strong appeal. They are always the element which makes the lasting impression on a foreigner seeing his first game of baseball between high-class professionals. He may discount the hitting because he does not realize how difficult it is to connect with major league pitching, and he may lose the fine points of infielding, but when Zack Wheat or Hi Myers runs a mile and makes a one-handed, back-hand catch the stranger is aware he has seen something extraordinary."

Frederickon, N. B., July 20.—W. R. Snowball, of Chatham, and Matthew B. Edwards, of St. John, have been named as members of the New Brunswick Fire Prevention Board by the Provincial Government under the provisions of the fire protection act passed at the last session of the legislature.

The board is to consist of five members, and the board of fire underwriters, who on behalf of the fire insurance companies, proposed the passage of the act, have named R. S. Ritchie and J. F. G. Knowlton, both of Saint John, as their representatives on the board. The fifth member will be named by the Union of Municipalities at their convention next month in St. John.

The New Brunswick fire prevention act is similar to that which has been in force in Nova Scotia for several years. Active administration of the act will be in charge of the fire marshal and it is said there are a number of applicants for the position.

Expecting Burglar, Writes Him A Note

New York, July 20.—When a woman finds a burglar in her room she may be counted on to do one of two things—scream at the top of her voice, or bury her head in the pillow. Sometimes she does both.

Mrs. Juliana Bugbee, an attractive, blonde young woman, did neither of these things when her bedroom was invaded in the middle of the night. She had a note ready for Mr. Burgess, and the note was tucked inside a handbag, which she showed beneath her pillow, and she closed her eyes very tight and let him slip the handbag from his hiding place and escape with it through an air shaft.

It happened that when the young woman, whose husband is in the south, returned to her apartment after dinner Thursday night with a friend, she exclaimed, upon entering the room, and before the light was switched on, "There's been a burglar in here."

Every room had been ransacked, but all the burglar took was a watch, a bowl of copper coins and a box of cigarettes.

"I know he's coming back; I feel perfectly sure he's somewhere in this apartment house," Mrs. Bugbee told into the toe of one of the shoes she had just taken off, put $1.50 in a handbag and wrote the following note to go with the money:

"I don't carry large sums of money with me, but I hope this small amount will take you over your present difficulties."

She tucked the note into the handbag with the $1.50 and laid the bag under her pillow so that it cornered, and finally fell asleep. Two hours later the burglar appeared, took the handbag and departed.

Political Hint.

He—"I suppose when all women vote the party managers will have to put handsome men on their tickets for candidates."

She—"What makes you think women will demand handsome men to vote for when you look at the kind most of them marry?"—Baltimore American.

Strategy.

"I saw the cutest little hat this afternoon."

"Did you buy it?"

"Not yet. I've got to pick out a more expensive one for my husband to refuse to buy so I can compromise on this one."—New York Sun.

How Can It Be So?

Problem's Driver Heavily Fined

Frederickon, N. B., July 21.—W. J. Utton, driver for the Roaring Brook Farm stable of Barton, Vt., piloted his two mares from New Bedford, Mass. Malee and Nora Hill, to straight heat in the 2.14 trot and 2.27 pace, respectively, at the Maine and New Brunswick circuit races here today.

Malee trotting to her record of 2.13 1/4 in the first and third heats, and Nora Hill taking a pacing win race record of 2.12 1/4, equal to her trotting record.

Each heat in the 2.27 pace was in 2.12 and a fraction, and announcement was made that it was the fastest time ever made in the Maritime Provinces in a race for slow class pacers.

The 2.17 trot was strung out to six heats. After the judges read the riot act to the drivers following a 2.22 1/4 opening heat, they speeded up until one heat in 2.13 1/4 was won by Zelma Strong, although Wingen Worly finally won the race.

The judges announced that "Bud" Tingley had been fined $75 for failing to drive The Problem to win in the fifth heat of the 2.12 class on Tuesday, and told the drivers that any further penalties in such cases would be suspensions for the season, without option of fines.

Blame High Prices For Trade Decline

Premier Drury Consults Labor and Capital in Effort to Prepare for Next Winter.

Toronto, July 21.—A committee, representative of industry and labor in the province will be appointed by the Ontario Government to report on the question of unemployment and if possible map out a programme to meet the serious situation likely to develop here next winter.

Premier Drury decided to day at a four hour conference with his cabinet and representatives of many groups of industries in the unemployment problem.

High Prices Blamed

Views were freely exchanged and the consensus of opinion seemed to be that the revival of trade was being delayed by high prices. The attitude of the labor representatives was that lower wages would be accepted in order to promote a revival of industry providing a cut did not entail a reduction in the standard of living. In other words they would take lower pay as the cost of living came down.

London, July 20.—Colonel Gretton, member of parliament for the Burton division, and a Conservative, has left the coalition, being dissatisfied with the policy of the government, especially in connection with the Irish question.

Conspiracy Worked Up By Ball Players

Chicago, July 21.—Chicago White Sox players accused of conspiring to throw the 1919 world series were not approached on the deal by gamblers or corrupted by a gambling clique, but formulated the conspiracy themselves and went to New York and former baseball players for financial backing.

Bill Burns, admitted accomplice and state's witness testified today in the trial of seven of the players and four others who are under indictment in the case. Eddie Cicotte, of Detroit, former White Sox pitcher, once rated as the best in the American League, made the sell-out proposition to Burns and Gandil, and Cicotte then volunteered the information that they could have the series thrown for $100,000.

Burns testified today to this effect was admitted last night after Judge Friend three times had barred Cicotte temporarily from the courtroom so that he could hear the attorneys could look up as while court rulings on the question. It was looked upon by the state as among the most important part of the witness' testimony, and it was de-
