Montreal Firms Fail to Reduce

Price, Despite Fact Fish
Are Plentiful.

Montreal, Oct. 20.— Hundreds of pounds of fish will be thrown away in Montreal this week, stated a local dealery day, on account of the inability of the middleman to get rid of their surplus stock. Vaet quantities of bullhead or barbot, as they are called by the French inhabitants, are clied by the French inhabitants, are being shipped into the city from neighboring fisheries and fish merchants are compelled to receive them on account of their contracts to take all the fisherimen catch.

Notwithstanding the fact that fish are so plentiful, local dealers have not lowered the price which remains at 18 cents a pound. It is stated that they intend throwing away what they cannot sell.

Import Trade.

Montreal, Oct. 20.—Requests for the indefinite postponement of the customs regulation regarding the marks were voiced at a meeting of the Montreal Dry Goods Association here today Views were emphatic that the new regulation would be a severe blow at United. States, the proportion of trade by those countries with Canada beimg relatively too small to induce them to altar their export machinery to meet the requirements of the new Canadian law

A resolution, covering the above pointa, was unanimously adopted at the meeting and it was decided to communicate it to the authorities at Ottawa
