the commission in the large diffing hall at the "Y" on Wednesday evening. The occasion marked one of the most unique events in the history of the S. A. C. and the "Y." only through the untring efforts of the women could such an event be carried out and achieved. Each individual worker deserves the highest credit. Secretary Ed Lance of the commission and L. M. Houlding, local boys' work secretary, were the instigators of this splendid idea, and are now asking the co-operation of the businessmen to make the scheme a record success.

Boys Are Enthusiastic. It was quite evident that the boys were enthusiastic over the idea, and all were asked to take an active part in anything the "Y" asked them to do. The boys will be placed in the classes of their own ages, and will in no wise be considered as underprivileged. During the supper William Christianson supplied the boys with toy balloons and these of different colors, floating in the air, helped to a large extent to make the boys enjoy themselves. James Gray, a member of the executive of the commission, was chairman for the evening. He urged that the boys do their level best to keep the British Empire the greatest country in the world.

Secretary Lance Cheered,
Secretary Lance was then called upon to speak to the boys. Three rousins cheers were given by the boys in recognition of his work. He explained the different facilities the "Y." offered to make each one a better boy and a better man. He asked that they always be obedient and go into everything with an object of "coming out on top."

Mr. Houlding, under whose guidance the boys will be, gave instructions to them on what their classework would be and how they would be grouped. He informed them of the different nights their classes would be held, and urged that all attend as regularly as possible.

In Charge of Supper.

The women in charge of the supper were: Mrs. A. T. Edwards, Mrs. S. F. Lawrason, Mrs. Ed Lance, Mrs. John Stuart, Mrs. Dr. Zeigler, Mrs. James Gray, Mrs. J. Slater, Mrs. G. Copeland, Miss Ruth Robinson, Miss M. Craig, Miss Ruth Robinson,

GUELPH RATEPAYERS

MIGHT NOT ASSIST

GUELPH, March 16.—Secretary J. E.
Rettle of the Winter Fair, in an interview with Mayor Burgess and Chairman Brydon of the Winter Fair committee of the city council, announced that plans for the erection of a new $160,000 arena with a seating capacity of $,000 had been prepared. The extensions may be built south of the present fair buildings.

Mr. Rettle intimated that the council would be asked to assume a large part of the cost of the arena, but he was informed that Guelph has put about all the money into the Winter Fair the city intends to, and that the ratepayers would strongly object to any further outlay. Mr. Rettie was asked to bring a connecte proposal before the local council, and promised to do so.

Matthew's Church wednesday

Evening.

Rev. Bishop David Williams confirmed a class of fifteen candidates, Following the impressive ceremony, the bishop, in an address, reminded those confirmed of the privileges given them by God and impressed upon them the necessity of fulfilling these obligations. "God, in return expects those confirmed to be true and loyal to his church and do not let the glories of satisfaction of the world come first, but pledge your lives to be models of God himself," said the bishop. Lenten Mission is in progress at St. Matthew's Church his week, and will be continued tonight and Friday evening. On Sunday, the mission will be brought to a close with a special service taken by Rev. Dean Tucker.
