WALTZ AGAIN IN LONDON PARIS, Feb. 3.—The pope's blockade avorite, the waitz, which has weathered o many waves of terpsichorean fads, is again coming into favor in London, much to the delight of the mothers of young girls and the older population generally. It is not to be denied that the fox trot and the one-step still have a big hold on the public, but the waltz is gradually taking its place beside them in popularity, so that at all impor-tant balls every third dance on the program is a waltz. The Prince of Wales may be responsible in a measure for this, for the popular young heir to the throne is very fond of the waltz, his favorite tune being "Once Again." SEEKING DAMAGES FOR
