OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

THE UPPER CANADA LAW JOURNAL—This well conducted publication we are glad to learn has proved eminently successful. Its contents must prove of great value to the profession in Canada and will prove interesting in the United States.—American Railway Review, September 20th, 1860.

THE UPPER CANADA LAW JOURNAL—This useful publication for September is before us. We heartily recommend it as a very useful Journal, not only to members of the legal profession but also to Magistrates, Bailiffs, &c. and in fact every person who wishes to keep himself posted in law matters. It has been recommended not only by the highest legal authorities in this Province but also in the United States and England. The present number is replete with useful information.—Willard Reporter, September 20th, 1860.

UPPER CANADA LAW JOURNAL—We have received the April number of this excellent publication, which is a credit to the publishers and the Province. Among a great variety of articles of interest, we especially note two, one on a series on the Constitutional History of Canada, the other upon a decision declaring the right of persons not parties to suits to search the books of the Clerks of Courts for judgments. The question arose out of a request of the Secretary of the Mercantile Protection Association.—Montreal Gazette, April 25th.

THE UPPER CANADA LAW JOURNAL FOR MAY. W. C. Chewett & Co., King Street, Toronto.—In addition to interesting reports of cases recently tried in the several Law Courts, and a variety of other important matter, this number contains well written original articles on Municipal Law Reform, responsibility and duties of School Trustees and Teachers, and a continuation of a Historical Sketch of the Constitution Laws and Legal Tribunals of Canada.—Thorold Gazette, May 19th, 1859.

UPPER CANADA LAW JOURNAL—The March number of this very useful and interesting Journal has been received. We think that the articles found in its pages are in a high degree of interest and merit, and that the editor is in a high degree of ability to any found in kindred periodicals either in England or America. Messrs. Ardagh & Harrison deserve the greatest credit for the manner in which the editorial work is performed. We hope that enterprise may be as profitable as it is creditable.—Hudsons Chronicle, May 16th 1859.

The Upper Canada Law Journal, W. C. Chewett & Co., Toronto. This well conducted publication, we are glad to learn, has proved eminently successful. Its contents must prove of great value to the Profession in Canada, and will prove interesting in the United States.—Legal Intelligencer, Philadelphia, August 6, 1858.

Upper Canada Law Journal—We have received the first No. of the fifth volume of this highly useful Journal, published by W. C. Chewett & Co., of Toronto, and edited by the learned Robert A. Harrison, Esq., B.C.L., author of the Common Law Procedure Act, which has obtained classification along with the celebrated compiles of England and is preferred by the professional men to all others.

There is no magistrate, municipal officer, or private gentleman, whose profession or education wishes the law to be well administered, should be without it. There are knots points defined with a simplicity that the most ordinary minds can understand, and the literary gentleman will find in its pages a history of the constitution and law of Canada from the assumption of British authority. Subscription $15 a year, and for the amount of five and a half pence advanced upon it, it is worth double the amount.—Victoria Herald, January 13, 1859.

The Law Journal of Upper Canada for January. By Messrs. ARDAGH and HARRISON. W. C. Chewett & Co., Toronto, $4 00 a year cash.

This is one of the best and most successful publications of the day in Canada, and its success prompts the editors to greater exertion. For instance they promise during the present volume to devote a larger portion of their attention to Municipal Law, at the same time not neglecting the interests of their general subscribers.—British Whig, January 18, 1859.

The Upper Canada Law Journal, for January. W. C. Chewett & Co., King Street East, Toronto.

This is the first number of the Fifth Volume; and the publishers announce that the terms on which the paper has been furnished to subscribers will remain unchanged—viz. $4 00 per annum, if paid before the issue of the March number, and $5 00 if afterwards. Of the utility of the Law Journal, and the ability with which it is conducted, ample testimony has been afforded by the Bar and the Press of this Province; so it is unnecessary for us to say much in the way of urging its claims upon the liberal patronage of the Canadian public.—Thorold Gazette, January 27, 1859.

THE UPPER CANADA LAW JOURNAL AND LOCAL COURTS' GAZETTE, is the name of an excellent monthly publication, from the establishment of W. C. Chewett & Co., Toronto.—It is conducted by W. D. Ardagh, and R. A. Harrison, B.C.L., Barrister-at-Law.—Price $4 per annum.—Oshawa Advocate, October 13th, 1858.

LAW JOURNAL for November has arrived, and we have with pleasure its valuable contents. In our humble opinion, the publication of this Journal is an indispensable boon to the legal profession. We are not aware of the extent of its circulation in Bradford; it should be taken, however by every member of the Bar, in town as well every Magistrate and Municipal Officer. Nor would politicians find it unprofitable, to pursue its highly instructive pages. This journal is admitted by Trans-Atlantic writers to be the most ably conducted Journal of the profession in America. The Publishers have our sincere thanks for the present number.—Brant Herald, Nov. 10th, 1858.

The Law Journal is beautifully printed on excellent paper, and, indeed, equals in its typographical appearance, the legal record published in the metropolis of the United Kingdom. $4 a year is a very inconsiderable sum for so much valuable information as the Law Journal contains.—Port Hope Ad.

UPPER CANADA LAW JOURNAL W. C. Chewett & Co., Toronto, Jan.—We have so frequently spoken in the highest terms of the merits of the above periodical that it is scarcely necessary for us to do anything more than acknowledge the receipt of the last number. It is almost as essential to Municipal Officers and Magistrates as it is to Lawyers.—Stratford Examiner, 4th May, 1859.

The Law Journal, August, 1858. Toronto, W. C. Chewett & Co.

This valuable law journal still maintains its high position. We hope its circulation is increasing. Every Magistrate should subscribe it. We are happy to learn from the number before us that Mr. Harrison's "Common Law Procedure Act" is highly spoken of by the English Jurist, a legal authority of considerable weight. His work is almost as useful to the English as to the Canadian Lawyer, and is not only the most recent, but by far the most complete edition which we Jurists have seen of these important acts of parliament.—Oshawa Star, August 11th, 1858.
