WEEKLY CALENDAR. Table with columns for Date, Day, and Week.

The Church.

TORONTO, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 21, 1853.

THE SYNOD-SYSTEM AND CHURCH UNITY.—We have already announced the satisfactory results of the late session of the General Convention of our Sister Church in the United States...

Our Prayer Book, then, smelt all the various shades of individual opinion, is the strong bond of union for our Church...

Under these circumstances, it should seem that the Church contains in her apostolic organization the elements of her perpetual unity...

Mr. Goding, whose "defence" appears in a succeeding column, is mistaken in his dates. His official instructions bear the date of the 4th of July...

THE BISHOP OF TORONTO AND THE BIBLE SOCIETY.—We beg to draw the attention of a correspondent of the Echo who has introduced the name of the Bishop of Toronto in connection with the Bible Society...

THE CANADIAN CORRESPONDENT OF THE NEW YORK Church Journal has sent that paper a detailed account of our late Synod. An abridged account of the Synod appears likewise in the London Guardian...

CONSECRATION.—It is with sincere pleasure that we make the announcement that St. George's Church in this city is to be consecrated on Wednesday next, the 30th inst., by his Lordship the Bishop of the Diocese...

The demarcation between Christian brotherhood and heresy will prove to have been a mere distinction, no separation at all...

PASTORAL LETTER OF THE AMERICAN BISHOPS.—In connection with the foregoing comments we may very appropriately quote the following passage from the Pastoral Letter issued by the Bishops assembled at the late General Convention of the Church in the United States...

My dear Sir, I beg to acknowledge the liberal contribution of the Congregation of St. George's Church, Toronto, to the Society for Irish Church Missions...

There is an appearance of warmth. The re-inauguration of St. Nicholas' Church, Brighton, is going on rapidly...

The Rev. Frederick Maurice, whose apparent unsoundness in the faith is noted in an extract from the English Churchman on our first page, has not been rector of his parish since he resigned his Professorship of Divinity in King's College...

The circumstances connected with the consecration of the Church of the Holy Trinity at Geneva, by the Bishop of Winchester, have been very unfortunate...

The Bishop of Geneva's case is a very simple one, though a great deal of vehement and perplexing discussion has arisen about it...

Convocation is prorogued from October 28th to Saturday, November 30.

The Bishop of Exeter has received a numerous and most gratifying address from the Parishioners of the district attached to the temporary Church of St. Stephen's, Devonport...

We have to acknowledge, with thanks, just as we are going to press—a package of books from Messrs. Appleton & Co. We will give them prompt attention.

CHURCHES, &c., BUILT, CONSECRATED OR RESTORED.—In the account of Devon Church, given last week, we omitted to state that the church is forty feet deep...
