B. at Napanee, Ont., June 14, 1863, he was ed. at Napanee High Sch. and at Victoria Univ. (B.A. and gold med. in Nat. Science, 1883; M.A., 1886). He became asst. master in the Cobourg Coll. Inst., a position he filled till his appt. as Prof. of Chemistry at the Ont. Ag. Coll., Guelph, 1886. Principal Mills writes that: "Prof. James was popular at the Inst., both with the students and with his fellow-professors. His lectures were always prepared with the greatest care and delivered with that clearness peculiar to his style, which rendered them so attractive. So completely satisfactory were his lectures that his many friends who were cognizant of this fact, while they rejoiced to hear of his promotion to another branch of the public service, felt that the Ag. Coll. would sustain a severe loss in his removal." The promotion referred to was his appt. as Deputy Mr. of Agricul. and as Secy. of the Ont. Bureau of Industries, which took effect from June, 1891. In this new position, by his ability, knowledge and peculiar fitness for the duties entrusted to him, he has earned credit both for himself and for the govt. to whose wisdom and discernment he owes his appt.
