BENGER'S

FOOD

Wherever there is a case of enfeebled digestion, whether from advancing age, illness, or general debility, there is a case for Benger's Food.

When the stomach becomes weakened, the digestion of ordinary food becomes only partial, and at times is painful, little of the food is assimilated, and the body is consequently insufficiently nourished.

This is where Benger's Food helps. It contains in itself the natural digestive principles, and is quite different from any other food obtainable.

All doctors know and approve of its composition, and prescribe it freely.

For INFANTS, INVALIDS, AND THE AGED.

The "British Medical Journal" says: "Benger's Food has, by its excellence, established a reputation of its own."

BENGER'S NEW BOOKLET deals with the most common doubts and difficulties which mothers have to encounter. It is sent post free on application to Benger's Food, Ltd., Otter Works, Manchester, England.

Benger's Food is sold in tins by Druggists, etc., everywhere. B19 didn't even have the grace to cover their refusal to work with a kick about the money offered not being enough.

One man was "waiting for a friend"; another said: "That's not in my line, I'm a machinist." Others had equally poor excuses.

Hunting in New Brunswick.

KERMIT ROOSEVELT, who accompanied his father on his famous big game hunting expedition in Africa, is now in the woods in New Brunswick with three other Americans and a party of guides. They are out after specimens of New Brunswick game for the Smithsonian Institute and National Museum at Washington. They are especially anxious to get specimens of moose, caribou and beaver, but will also collect others.

Mr. Roosevelt has his camera with him, and this visit ought to provide a great advertisement for the big game regions of the Province. Every year large numbers of sportsmen from the United States visit New Brunswick in search of moose, caribou, deer and bears. The Province protects its game and the receipts from hunters' licenses are an important item of provincial revenue.

Complaints About Water.

TORONTO'S florists made a complaint a few weeks ago that the chlorination of the city's water did harm to several varieties of greenhouse plants. And now a novel complaint has been made concerning Winnipeg's water.

The Manitoba Free Press of September 11 tells about the latter complaint as follows:

Winnipeg's alkali water is bad medicine for goldfish according to Odiva, the Samoan water worker, who was at the Orpheum last week. Several of her big school of fish died in the tank before she realized what the trouble was and they were then all removed and kept in river water, but even there they continued to drop off. For the last two days of the week the fish were kept out of the tank.

Miss Odiva has sent to Duluth for a couple of barrels of lake water in which she will carry the rest of her pets to Spokane. She has also sent for more goldfish to a dealer in Philadelphia who keeps her supplied with the finny beauties.

The Mann Cup.

THE British Columbia Lacrosse Team, which came East last year to compete against the Ontario champions for the Sir Donald Mann Cup, did not have a very satisfactory visit. It is questionable as to whether they were well treated or not. However, British Columbia has determined to have another try at it. The Vancouver Athletic Club's Amateur Team, which won the championship of British Columbia recently, has sent a challenge to the trustees of the Mann Cup in Toronto, and asked for dates. The Cup is now held by the Young Torontos. All of which goes to show that lacrosse is still the national game in British Columbia, and that the followers of the game in that Province are earnest and enthusiastic sportsmen.

Opportunities in the East.

THE Maritime Provinces as a promising field for those who desire to establish new industries, or to profitably invest capital in the exploitation and development of natural resources, is the theme of an interesting booklet just issued by the Intercolonial Railway.

The advantages of many parts of New Brunswick and Nova Scotia are ably presented in detail, together with many cheerful facts that ought to impress those who have capital ready to invest in a new field that is rich in opportunity.

The booklet will be mailed free to those who write the Industrial Department, Intercolonial Railway, Moncton, N. B.
