

Day Fold Exposed

University Hall...The old students' union building, it now holds administration offices, council chambers, and campus development.

Athabasca Hall...Oldest academic building on campus, when opened in 1911 it had classrooms and administrative and staff offices. Now has the departments of entomology and art and design, special services and post office.

Assiniboia Hall...A multi-use building, primarily office space for grad students in the faculties of Arts, engineering and library science. Also, graduate students' association office and university publications.

SUB...The students' union playhouse, the hub of campus activity. Has everything, from bookstore in basement to booze (in RATT) at top. Offices of the students' union, The Gateway, billiards, bowling, curling, 744-seat theatre, cafeteria, student manpower, student help, counselling services, CKSR, etc.

Biological Sciences Centre...The U of A's answer to the Pentagon, this massive building has separate wings for botany, microbiology, zoology, psychology and genetics. Also, the office of the dean of science, radio and television studios and the Boreal Institute.

Cameron Library...Houses Medical Sciences, General Sciences and undergraduate library, government publications collection, reserve reading room, and micromaterials. Also the administrative offices for the library system.

CAB...Finished in 1971, it has a cafeteria, classrooms and offices of the faculty of business administration and commerce and mathematics department and ombudsman. A focal point on campus.

Tory building...Named after the first president of the U of A, Tory is the major lecture room complex on campus. Opened in 1966, it houses the departments of anthropology, economics, history, geography, political science and sociology.

HUB...Aroused interest of North American architects and planners, is the first student-owned housing project. Accommodations range from bachelor to four-man suites, for about 1,000 students.

Humanities...Three departments, English, philosophy, and classics share this building, completed last spring.

Rutherford II...Books have been moved into the new library since August and it should be in full use by Sept. 10. It has a catalogue for the entire library system, humanities and social sciences collection and reference services.

Rutherford...study space, periodicals reading room and archives.

Arts building...A campus relic, opened in 1915 and is used by the departments of romance and Germanic languages, comparative literature and art and design. Music department also uses Convocation Hall.

Other labels on the map include: PRINTING SERVICES, HUB, STUDENT UNION, CAMERON LIBRARY, ATHABASCA HALL, ASSINIBOIA HALL, BIOLOGICAL SCIENCES, ENGINEERING, CENTRAL ACADEMIC, CHEMISTRY, CHEMISTRY TWO, MEDICAL SCIENCE, NORTH POWER PLANT, ARTS, HENRY MARSHALL LIBRARY, THEATRE, RUTHERFORD HOUSE, PRESIDENT'S RESIDENCE, GARAGE, INDUSTRIAL FILMS, MECHANICAL, NUCLEAR RESEARCH, V WING, PHYSICS, AGRICULTURE, SASKATCHEWAN DRIVE, RIVERBANK, 116th STREET, 92nd AVE, 9th AVE, 8th AVE, ST JOSEPHS, and CENTRAL ACADEMIC HALL.