

Police arrest resident of car

Suspect in several thefts over the last three months was arrested by Peel police last week.

The man was found living in a car on Jaguar Valley Dr. The owner of the vehicle had not been using it regularly and reported the man after finding him there. Police found stopwatches, cameras, liquor and other stolen items in the car.

Charged with three counts of break and enter and one count of possession of stolen property is William John Hayes, 28, of no permanent address.

Officer assaulted

A man has been charged with assaulting a Peel policeman in Port Credit last Saturday.

Two uniformed officers were investigating reports of a loud party on Lakeshore Rd. E. and found a man pounding on the door of a fourth-floor apartment. The man resisted arrest, and Const. D. Phillips was cut on the left elbow in the struggle. He was not seriously injured.

Charged with resisting arrest and causing a disturbance is Paul Philip Hodge, 28, of Lakeshore Rd. E.

Landlords attacked

The pressures of renting became too much for two Mississauga residents last weekend.

THE LAW

A tenant was arguing with his landlord Nov. 7 when he attempted to end the argument by pulling a knife.

Charged with possession of a dangerous weapon is Anthony Lauretano, 33, of Mohawk Ave.

Another man went to pay his rent last Sunday at 1:30 a.m. During the ensuing argument, the man threatened his landlord with a razor knife.

The landlord disarmed the man and called police. Upon investigation, police found a shotgun and several shells in the man's home.

Charged with careless storage of a firearm and possession of a dangerous weapon is Gerald McCulloch, 30, of Coram Cr.

Sports car stolen

Metropolitan Toronto police have arrested a man in connection with the theft of an automobile from a Mississauga service station.

Peel Regional Police say a man broke into Hugh's Sunoco station, at 971 Burnhamthorpe St. E., and stole the keys for a Chevrolet sports car parked at the station.

Charged with break and enter and theft over a value of $200 is David Wayne Cayley, 17, of Oak Park Ave., Toronto.

Youth charged

Peel Regional Police have charged a man in connection with three break-ins in the Port Credit area last week.

Police say shortly after 1 a.m. Nov. 4, two thieves broke into the Country Fish and Chips at 293 Lakeshore Rd. E. A small amount of cash was stolen.

One of those arrested has also been charged with two other crimes. On Nov. 2, the Caprice House of Hair Design on 308 Lakeshore Rd. E. was robbed of $4.

Later in the afternoon, a man broke into Joseph's Shoes, at 276 Lakeshore Rd. E., but left without stealing anything.

Charged with break and enter and theft is Ronald Edward Rayner, 16, of no fixed address. An accomplice will be charged under the Juvenile Delinquent's Act.
