Private and Confidential.

Quebec, March 6th. 1926.

Right Honorable Arthur Meighen,
Leader of the Opposition.
Ottawa.

Dear Mr. Meighen :-

I have received yesterday afternoon, as I was leaving for Quebec, your letter of the 5th. wherein you quote an extract of a letter from Quebec, in reference to some trouble down here. I wired you immediately to advise you that I would reply from Quebec.

I wrote you, not long ago, advising that in future all my letters, telegrams or telephones should be addressed care of Mr. Arthur Lalonde, 35 St. James street, Room 23, Montreal, (Telephone, Main 8494). Your letter of the 5th. was sent to the old address, at the Royal Bank.

I would not advise your coming down to Quebec at the present time. If I am unable, with the help of my friends, to control such troubles as referred to by your correspondent, I might just as well drop the organization right away. You are the chief and the last trump of the Conservative Party; no good player will play his last trump
