Dear Mr. Willoughby:

I did not realize, when you wrote me last, that you are a brother of the late Senator Willoughby of Moose Jaw. I knew the Senator's brother at Ottawa. I did not know where he was, or whether he was West. I would indeed have liked to have known at the time of the Senator's death in order that I might have sent a telegram of sympathy. Mrs. Wellington White has been down and told me that there were three brothers there at the time as well as a sister.

As doubtless you know, I was closely associated with your late brother over a long period of years, and had to do chiefly with his appointment to the Senate. He was a very loyal colleague through the dark days of our Party in Western Canada, and I can never forget his fidelity and wise counsel throughout those years. It is sad indeed to think that a man of his ability should be afflicted and suffer as he did, and pass away at a time
