

Inspector should use his influence with the Indians on the various Reserves to make the children attend the Day Schools; see to the most promising ones being drafted off to the Institution or High Schools, and after they get through their course, see that they continue at the employment for which they were be-trained.

It is submitted to this Department that unless some such course as the one proposed above is adopted, Industrial Indian Schools can never be made as efficient and as useful as they ought to be, owing to the careless and irregular habits natural
