MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRIME MINISTER:

Re: Preparations for Session

Attached are copies of the two types of letters which I have today sent to Ministers respecting the submission of legislation. You might wish to emphasize the importance of immediate submission of bills at tomorrow's Cabinet meeting.

Also attached is a draft agenda in which certain outstanding questions are included. Mr. Claxton tells me, as well, that he is sending you a note about the composition of the Defence Committee which he hopes you may be able to have dealt with tomorrow so that the Committee may deal next week with certain outstanding business. No agenda has been circulated.
