

LATIN ROOTS.	MEANING.	EXAMPLE.	LATIN
deus	a god	deity, deify, adieu	impe: × dico (dictum)	I say	dictate, diction, --ary, indict, indicate; predict, verdict	insul jacio dies	a day	dial, diary, diurnal, meridian, dominus	a lord	dominion, dominate, domineer × duco (ductum)	I lead	conduct, deduct, induct, duke, aqueduct, introduce, produce, reduce	jude: × jung: juro lego duo	two	dual, duel, duet, dubious, duplicate durus	hard	durable, duration, endure, obdurate ego	I	egotist, egotism erro	I wander	err, error, erroneous, erratic	levis facilis	easy	facility, facilitate, difficult, --y	lex ( × facio (feci)	I do or make	fact, factor, factory, affect, effect, facsimile, manufacture, sufficient	liber liber liter fallo	I deceive	fallible, infallible, fallacy, false, fault × fero	I bear or carry	infer, prefer, confer, refer, suffer, differ, offer, transfer	locu luna mag festum	a feast	feast, festive, festival, festal fido	I trust	confide, fidelity, infidel, perfidious figo (fixum)	I fasten	fix, affix, suffix, prefix, transfix finis	an end	finish, finite, infinite, define, final fluo	I flow	fluid, influence, confluence, influenza, influx	mal ma folium	a leaf	foliage, trefoil, folio fortis	strong, brave	fort, fortress, fortify, fortitude, effort	ma: ma: me: me: frango (fractum)	I break	fraction, fracture, infraction, fragment, frail, fragile frater	a brother	fraternal, fraternity, fratricide frigus	cold	frigid, refrigerator frons (frontem)	forehead	front, frontier, confront, frontispiece fugio	I flee	fugitive, refuge, refugee, subterfuge gratus	pleasing	grateful, gratify, gratitude, congratu- late, grace, disgrace, agree	mi: mil mi: mi: mi: gravis	heavy	grave, gravity, aggravate, grief, grieve hæreo	I stick	adhere, adhesive, cohesion, hesitate halo	I breathe	exhale, inhale homo	a man	human, humane, homage, homicide	mc m: na nc nc horreo	I shudder	horror, horrid, horrible, abhor hostis	an enemy	hostile, hostility, hostage humus	the ground	exhume, humble, humility, humiliate idem	the same	identical, identity, identify	