

and keeping, as though such animal or animals were his own property and the owner of, or other person having in charge any animal not permitted to run at large by the By-laws of this Municipality, shall be liable, for all damage done by such animal, although the fence enclosing the premises was not of the height required by such By-laws, or although there be no fence enclosing the premises.

6. The owner of any animal unlawfully trespassing or doing damage to the property of any person in the Township of Guelph, shall be liable for the damage so caused.

7. It shall be lawful for any person resident in the Township of Guelph to distrain and impound any animal running at large contrary to this By-law, or unlawfully trespassing on or doing damage to the property of any person within the limits of this Township, and any pound-keeper in the said Township shall impound every animal delivered to him by any such resident as having been distrained as aforesaid.

8. The owner or person having charge of every animal impounded shall at any time be entitled to the animal on demand made therefor, without payment of any poundage fees, on giving satisfactory security to the Poundkeeper for all costs, damages and poundage fees that may be established against him.

9. The person distraining or impounding any animal or animals shall, at the time of such impounding, deposit poundage fees with the Poundkeeper, if such be demanded by him.

10. The person so distraining or impounding shall also, at the time of such impounding or within twenty four hours thereafter, deliver to the Poundkeeper duplicate statements in writing of his demands for damages (if any), not exceeding twenty dollars, done by such animal or animals, exclusive of poundage fees, and shall also give his written agreement (with a surety if required by the Poundkeeper) in the form following, or in words to the same effect:—

"I, C., or we (as the case may be), do hereby agree that I (or we) will pay to the owner of the (describing the animal) by me (A. B.) this day impounded all costs to which the said owner may be put in case the distress by me, the said A. B., proves to be illegal, or in case the claim for damages now put in by me, the said A. B., fails to be established."

11. Unless the animal impounded be claimed and the damage (if any), fines (if any), and expenses and fees be paid, the Poundkeeper shall sell the same, but no pig or poultry shall be sold till after four clear days, nor any horse, horned or other neat cattle, or ram, till after thirty clear days from the time of impounding the same.

12. Notice of sale shall be given by the Poundkeeper within forty-eight hours after the impounding.

13. In the case of pigs or poultry such notice shall be given by putting up notices of the sale in at least six public places in the Municipality at least three clear days before the sale.

14. In the case of all other animals such notice shall be given by advertisement in at least three issues of a weekly newspaper published in the Town of Guelph, and by putting up notices of the sale in at least six public places in the Township of Guelph.

15. Such notices of sale in both the above cases shall specify the time at which the animal shall be publicly sold if not sooner replevined or redeemed by the owner or some one in his behalf paying the penalty imposed by law (if any, the amount of the damages (if any) claimed or decided to have been committed by the animal to the property of the
