

CLASSICAL COURSE.

The Third, or Classical Course, includes, in addition to all the Studies of the First and Second Courses,

Latin Grammar and Exercises,	Greek Lessons,
Latin Reader,	Greek Grammar and Exercises,
Cæsar, or Sallust,	Jacob's Greek Reader,
Virgil's Eneid and Bucolics,	Greek Testament,
Cicero's Select Orations,	Homer's Iliad,
Horace,	Græca Majora,
Cicero de Oratore,	Eschines and Demosthenes de Corona,
Livy, and Tacitus,	&c. &c.

Roman and Grecian Antiquities and History,
Ancient Geography, &c. &c.

GENERAL EXERCISES.

PUBLIC DECLAMATION from all the Students once in two weeks.

COMPOSITION " " " " " "

A portion of every Sunday is devoted to the united Study of the SACRED SCRIPTURES, under the direction of the Chaplain.