The Very Best is None Too Good.

If you are a first-class risk, the very best Company is none too good for you. You know the best by its record for care in selecting its risks and making its investments, and its care and economy in managing its affairs generally.

The Temperance and General Life Assurance Company

REPORTS:

Not a single dollar of interest due and unpaid on Dec. 31st, 1894, '95 or '96, and not a dollar's worth of real estate ever owned in any part of its history.

A death-rate in its eleventh year of only $2.37 for each $1,000 of insurance for the year. A gain of business in force of over $700,000, and all other features equally favorable.
