

Evans and Jamieson, Science, '90, were employed by Mr. Donald, and Calvert, Science, '90, visited the old land.

Ellacott, Science, '90, assisted Mr. Chipman, P.L.S., in the survey of a township in the northern part of Nipissing district.

M. W. Hopkins, Science, '87, once a pillar of THE GAZETTE, is devoting his energies to bridge building for the Intercolonial.

G. K. Addie, Science, '89, has established an office of Civil Engineering and Land Surveying in his native city of Sherbrooke.

Dr. McCurdy, '89, has given up his practice at Ormstown and removed to Sutton, Que., where his prospects are enlarged.

C. L. Wheeler, B.A., M.D., etc., has adopted the stage as a profession. If ever he strikes this town he will draw a full house.

H. V. Truell, Prince of Wales gold medalist, Arts, '89, is at present acting as second head-master of the St. Luke Street High School, Montreal.

Dan. Taylor, Science, '87, is in Minneapolis, and has made a standing order to all the graduating class to fill engagements that he has contracted.

Miss McFee and Miss Murphy, B.A.'s of '88, have returned, respectively, from Cornell University and from Geneva, and will spend the winter in Montreal.

Miss Alice Wilson, B.A., '89, has accepted an important position in a College in Winnipeg, Man. It is the first time a lady has been appointed to the post.

Miss Maude Squire, B.A., '89, has unfortunately, through ill health, been obliged to postpone entering upon her medical studies at Kingston until next year.

Miss Helen Reid, B.A., '89, an efficient member of our last year's editorial staff, is in Geneva studying music and languages. THE GAZETTE hopes to hear from her.

There is now a colony of McGillians in Europe; they are found everywhere, and their name is legion. Amongst them are Lefrossignol, B.A., '88, and Evans, Science, '84.

It is like a breath from the old days to hear from MacNutt, Science, '88. He is chief cook in a Colorado smelting works, and if he should come this way at Christmas, as he suggests, the boys will take a half-holiday.

How is this for an ex-editor? Rev. A. Parker Solandt, B.A., B.D. That's the name and title of the man that writes to wish THE GAZETTE success. Solandt spent the last six winter months in Oberlin College, and some day may tell us something about it.

Revs. J. K. Unsworth, Arts, '81, and Hugh Pedley, Arts, '76, passed through this city recently to attend, as delegates, the former from the Congregational Union of Ontario and Quebec, the latter from that of Manitoba, the National Council of Congregational Churches at Worcester, Mass.

George Stephen, Medicine, '85, has undertaken the responsibilities of medical practice in London, England, with the highest prospects. If the possession of the highest degrees England can confer on deserving students is any criterion, Mr. Stephen should receive the reward of his patience and courage.

C. S. Mathieson, Med., '89, THE GAZETTE is glad to see, is taking a prominent part in the formation of a Medical Council in his Province, Prince Edward Island. If the society deals with quackery in as thorough a fashion as he dealt with the intricacies of Pathology, the respectability of the profession will reach a high standard.

The following personals have been grouped together for obvious reasons, and are meant to serve as an example or warning, as the case may be.

What does this mean?—

FERRIER—HOLT.—On the 16th inst., at the residence of the bride's aunt, Mrs. James Gooderham, Toronto, by the Rev. W. S. Blackstock, Walter Frederick Ferrier, B.A.Sc., F.G.S., of New Brunswick, N.J., formerly of Montreal, to Josephine Alfreda, youngest daughter of E. B. Holt, Esq.

Good luck, my boy.

Rev. J. A. McFarlane, B.A., '85, has been called and inducted to the Presbyterian Church, Valleyfield, Married, too.

T. J. S. Haythorne, Medicine, '86, has obtained a lucrative position in one of London's largest hospitals, and the best of the joke is he has assumed the marital relation toward a young lady of Wales. If she has the good qualities of Tom, they will make an amiable pair.

J. McDougall, B.A., '86, and M. McKenzie, have commenced their work in the China mission fields, and have taken their life co-workers with them.

Rev. A. S. Grant, B.A., '85, has taken charge of a flourishing congregation in Almonte, Ont., and has married him a wife.

J. H. McVicar, B.A., '85, appointed missionary to China, sailed from Vancouver Oct. 4th, taking with him—as so many of our other graduates have recently done—a wife to support and comfort him.

Dr. A. G. Hall, '88, settled at Ormstown, Que., was joined in matrimony last summer to Miss Janie Baird, of the same place. Dr. Hall has worked up a successful practice there.

Students from the Maritime Provinces are pained to hear of the death of Thomas A. Lepage, at one time a student in Montreal, and latterly a teacher in Prince of Wales College, Charlottetown. Few young men have had a wider influence, and it will endure in the lives of his students and be perpetuated by them. The following is from a local paper, and it is true in every particular:—"He possessed the most valuable of a teacher's powers—the ability to arouse and stimulate thought; and there are not a few young men and women who feel that, under his leadership, they first learned that most valuable of arts—the
