LAMBKIN'S HOLSTEIN SALE.

Editor, Farm and Dairy--Notwithstanding the severe weather, between 700 and 800 men were present at the sale of Mr. Edwin W. Lambkin, on Feb. 26th. Many prospective buyers came from a distance, but much of the best stock was sold in the morning. Lambkin, H. Wick. Everything was in first class condition and buyers felt they got extra good value for their money. Doubtless the pure breeds would have brought much more money had we not gotten out catalogue, for although their breeding was given when in the ring, the crowd was so large that only a few could see the animals. Comments were made to the effect that the animals would have gone higher had they not been mixed up. The best Holstein grade three-year-old went to Ed. Finner, Walkerton, for $83. White, the best Durham grade cow brought $83, going to R. Cochrane, Listowel. Mr. McLeod of Fordwich is to be congratulated on securing the registered Clyde show mare for $275. The following is a list of buyers of the pure bred cattle and sheep obtained:

Aggie McNeil, $105; sold to D. C. Gape, Wroster; Trisla De Kol Pearl, $140; P. 1 McNay, Lucknow; Trisla De Kol, seed cow, $125; C. B. Moffat, Wroster; Morningside, 14-year-old, $45; Alex. Edgar, Gortie; Josie Voeman Korndyke, three months heifer, $75; W. J. Lambkin, Fordwich; Josie Voeman of Glenoid, two-year-old, $150; P. R. McNay, Lucknow; Korndyke Queen of Glenoid, $130; A. J. Hooper, Wroster; Black Bird of Glenoid, $140; M. J. Johnson, Fordwich; Trisla Korndyke of Glenoid, $125; E. Hamilton, Listowel; Ruth Voeman of Glenoid, heifer, $65; M. Johnson, Fordwich; Sherwood Korndyke, heifer calf, $65; L. Litchford, Shelbourne. The average for females leaving out the aged cow, $125.30. Total for 11 head pure breeds $1,200.

The sale totalled $5,000 and besides this amount Mr. Lambkin received about $500 worth of stock--Ray Lambkin, Fordwich, Ont.
