NEW WATERWORKS SYSTEM.

St. Catharines January 5 .- Ratepayers of the vilage of Port Dalhousie, carried a by-law to provide $50,000 by the issue of debentures for the introduction of a waterworks system. It is proposed that a supply of wtaer be obtained from the St. Catharines system, and piped by a main to the new village system to be installed. Some opposition in the city has already been foreshadowed, although the question has not become a live issue.

STRICT CIVIC ECONOMY. Winnipeg, Man., January 6.-Strict economy is to be the watchword in civic administration here throughout the year. Major Waugh favors submitting no bills involving capital expenditure to the ratepayers this year and undertaking no local improvements except where absolutely necessary.
