This Institution was opened in January, 1850, and is now in full and efficient operation.

The Proprietor is erecting a large addition to the dwelling house, which is to be finished and ready for the reception of pupils at the commencement of the term, 18th July next. Accommodation will thus be afforded for tea or fifteen additional pupils as Boaddras, and the Principals hope that by unremitting attention to the moral conduct of the young ladies entrusted to their care, as well as to their social intercourse when out of School, to merit the continuance of that approbation, of which they have already received such gratifying proofs.

Amherst is a remarkably healthy part of the Province, and in that respect possesses advantages over a Town residence, especially for children of delicate constitutions, and excellent medical aid may be obtained if necessary. No pains will be spared to promote the health of the scholars by proper exercise, and a gentle saddle horse is kept for the use of those young ladies whose parents may wish them to ride.

The i-eminary is situated within a few minutes' walk of four different places of public worship, and near to the Telegraph Station and Post Office.

Halifax, May 3d, 1851.

To John Naylor Esq.,
Sig.—The cause of suffering homanity demands, I think, that every one who knows of any thing that will afford relief, onght to make it public. Believing this to be the fact, I hand you the following certificate of what has come inder my notice, and you are at liberty to use it in any under my notice, and you are at liberty to use it in any way that you may think proper.

In March last, my wife was attacked with that dreadful disease, Erystpelas, in her leg. It inflamed and swelled to an alarming size, causing excruciating pain, rendering it impossible for her to put her foot to the floor, and was fast advancing upwards. Her case was one painful to look on. Having read in a newspaper of the beneficial effects of fire. Bertaux's remedy, I advised her to procure a bottle from you, which she did, and the effect was miraculous; for in the short space of four hours, she was so are relieved that we ware both quite astonished. She tar relieved that we were both quite astonished. She continued to recover gradually, and in a few days was quite free (and I believe and hope for ever) from that dreadful unlady.

His book is quite remarkable, it is full of information, and the very information needed to afford a just estimate of the country Its statistics are abundant, but they are woven into sketches, personal and general, in such a manner as to relieve them of duluess. It treats of our manufactures, shipping, navy, public men, slavery, religion, and we know not what it omns. It ought to be a reliable volume.—Boston, Zion's Herald, Mon 20th
