

DON'T SWEAR; GOD WILL HEAR YOU.

DURING the summer of 18—, I had occasion to ride a few miles on a train on the — railway. The caboose was rather a neat one, nice and clean; which being somewhat out of the order of what we usually see, I was curious enough to give the car a more general survey. My eyes rested on a card stuck in the frame of rather an inviting picture suspended at the side of the car, on which, in a bold, legible hand, I found the words as above: "Don't swear: God will hear you." A strange feeling came over me on reading this; I felt as though I was in the immediate presence of Him who wrote at Sinai. I was therefore led to inquire how this handwriting came there, and for what purpose. At this juncture the conductor made his appearance and the whole story was told.

Some months passed. I took a seat in the same car; a new conductor presented himself. I learned that the former had become one of the first men on the road. God will not forsake the man who does not forsake Him.

EVERY head of a family should have family prayer and say grace at table.

No member of the Church should neglect private prayer and Bible reading. He who neglects these, is not likely to get the crown.

EVERY one should try to attend church regularly. Do not let a little headache, or a little rain, or a little cold, or a little heat, or a little company, keep you from the house of God.

SET a good example. If other people will drink, and cheat, and lie, and be worldly, let it not be so with us.

Be polite and kind to every one who comes to church. Tell them you are glad to see them and hope they will come again.

HAD SUFFERED MANY PHYSICIANS and grew no better but rather worse. Mr. D. H. Howard, of Geneva, N.Y., after dismissing his physicians, tried nearly half a gross of the various blood and liver remedies advertised, with no benefit; when one bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters cured him of Paralysis and General Debility. At the advanced age of 60, he says he feels young again, and overjoyed at his wonderful recovery.

THE TONTINE INVESTMENT POLICY of The North American Mutual Insurance Company combines in one form the greatest number of advantages attainable in a Life Insurance Policy. It appeals at once to the intelligence of all who understand the principles and practice of Life Insurance.

All Policies whether on Life or Endowment Rates, are subject to no higher charge in Premium Rates, in taking the "Tontine Investment" form.

The extra benefits of this are conditioned only upon continuance of the Policy for a certain specified term or Tontine period of ten, fifteen or twenty years, selected by the insured himself.

Two things most desired in Life Insurance are the certainty of protection in early death, and profit in long life. These are combined in the "Tontine Investment Policy" of the North American Mutual Life Insurance Coy., which also issues Annuities and all the ordinary approved forms of Life Policies.
