

THE PROPER CAPER.

Mustard colored gloves, with black stitching, are fashionable in Paris and London.

Ruches of colored crape are used to head lace flounces on satin or watered silk dresses.

A new textile for ball toilets closely resembles crape, except that it shines like satin and is manufactured in the most beautiful colors.

Fancy muffs made of velvet and other rich materials are elegant rivals of the plain colored muffs of fur. A fur lining is now more aptly put in.

Coats are considerably less the rage than they were last season, French cashmere, camel's hair sacking in its varied qualities and effects, serge and vigogne being strong rivals.

Silk and wool mixtures will be largely used in the making of street and church costumes for the spring. In its weaving the silk threads are thrown almost wholly on the surface of the goods, and a rich, lustrous effect produced.

Deep ecru laces are much used as wings, fan bows, puffs on evening bonnets and ties and to drape entire crowns of small hats. A spreading alsatian bow of ecru in some rich color in front, with a sparkling aigret clasp or other ornament in the center. — New York Post.

Princess Marie of Roumania, wife of the crown prince, has an unusual hobby—the collection of perfumery bottles. In this she resembles her grandmother, the late empress of Russia, who left a collection of beautiful perfumery bottles valued at $30,000.

There are three religions in the royal family of Roumania. Prince Ferdinand is a Roman Catholic; his wife, the daughter of the Duke of Edinburgh, is a Protestant, and their newly born heir was baptized by the metropolitan of Bucharest and will be brought up in the national Roumanian church.

How are Your Teeth?

Remember that when you have your teeth extracted the bony foundation that held the root is no longer needed, and nature absorbs it. This process changes the whole expression of the face, and can never be restored. You can always tell a person with artificial teeth. Crown and Bridge work by Dr. Findley's New Method preserves these roots and saves the expression—in fact, teeth inserted on this principle are not what you might term "false teeth," as we restore the old roots. Besides, the work is permanent, and does not cover the roof of the mouth at all. You can chew anything with impunity, and never be in agony of expecting your teeth to drop out, for this is absolutely impossible when work is done by my system. Rooms 1 and 2, 86½ Government st.
