BELMORE

Mr. and Mrs. Greenley of Belmore are spending a few days with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fulton of Harrison.

A number from here are hauling their turkeys to Mildmay, when they should be hauling them to Belmore. Something wrong!

Mr. and Mrs. Darch and family of London spent Thanksgiving with R. J. Douglas.

The world is being filled with delicate women! Instead of wearing sensible boots in cold weather they foolishly insist on wearing those fine "in the grave" slippers.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Merkle motored to Toronto to visit with friends.

Mr. Robert Baird attended the funeral of his mother last week.

A lot of cider is being made—which means plenty of "sore" heads and scolding next summer.

Miss Minnie Jeffray visited at Wroxeter last week.

There must be something wrong—the taxes are too high in Carrick compared with those of other Townships nearby.

Mr. John Gillespie was helping Mr. Haskins to start his engine. John, not being quick, had his hand badly hurt, but being a quiet man it passed over with not very many bad words being said.

Misses Helen Mulvey and Annie Douglas of Stratford Norman School spent Thanksgiving at their home here.

A CALENDAR ROMANCE

Our hero was the common sort, when all is said and done;
He worked his head off daily and was out to get the MON.
The reason for his diligence was 'common place, 'tis true—
He tried to swell his salary so he would do for TUE.
And maybe that's the reason why one day he lost his head.
And falling on his knees, he cried: "Oh, maiden, wilt thou WED."
He may have thought this sudden, but it seemed not so to her;
She slipped a quick acceptance and said forcibly, "Yeth, THUR.
But when they went to keeping house he feared he would die;
For, oh, that modern maiden could neither bake nor FRI.
She could not run a bungalow, or even run a flat,
So on many occasions in a restaurant he SAT.
But he forgave her everything—as man has always done—
When she presented him one day a bouncing babe SUN.

UNION STOCK MARKETS TORONTO

Slightly higher prices were paid for any choice offerings of cattle at the Union Stock Yards yesterday but values remained unchanged for the common and medium grades. The demand was a little better than last week and 3200 head had passed over the scales at 2 o'clock. Receipts were for the opening market last week and this was due to a falling off in the Western shipments. Export buyers were fairly active and the store cattle demand continued higher and calves remained steady. In hogs there was a gain of 50c per cwt., largely attributable to the light supply. The top price of the day was $8.25 paid for ten heavy steers. These were taken by one of the abattoirs, but will likely go overseas. Another full load brought $8.10 per cwt., and the balance of the heavy steers sold from $7 to $8. Rough, heavy Western steers sold downward to $6.10. In the 1100 to 1200-lb. class about 15 loads sold from $7 to $7.75, and three steers brought $8. Most of these were taken for shipment overseas. The quality was not very good in the lighter steers weighing under 1000 lbs. The best sold from $6 to $6.25, and medium quality ones from $5 to $5.75. Sales of common killers were around $4, with some lower Heifers were taken for export from $7 to $7.50, and for killing from $6.50 to $7. Common to medium quality heifers brought from $4.25 to $4.25.

Lambs generally sold at an advance of 25c a hundred, the bulk of the choice ones bringing $13.50 a hundred. A couple of extra choice lots sold at $13.75, and medium quality ones sold from $13 to $13.25. Culls sold at $11 and bucks from $10 to $10.50. Steady prices were paid for sheep, good light ones bringing from $6 to $7. A lot of thin sheep changed hands from $3 to $5.50.

Steady prices were paid for calves and the quality of the offering was none too good. Half a dozen real choice calves brought $11.50 to $12 and the bulk of the fair to good ones from $9 to $11. Light calves from $7 to $8. Quality of the offering was not very good.
