WOMEN'S CANADIAN CLUB

ADDRESS BY MR. T. A. HARTT, M. P.

The meeting of the Women's Canadian Club on Nov. 23, opened with the singing of "O Canada" by the chorus. The minutes of the previous meetings were read, and the President, Mrs. Andrews, made a brief address. The proceeds of the Patriotic Sale, amounting to $627 in all, she said, would be handed to Mr. Babbitt, the next officer of the Fund and the next effort of the Club on behalf of our soldiers would be left in the hands of a committee of the younger members. This Committee consists of the convenor, Mrs. William Morrow; and the Misses Bessie Grimmer, Dorothy Lamb, Elsie Finigan, Carol Hibbard and Phyllis Cockburn. The selection "Soldiers of the King" was very enthusiastically rendered by the chorus before Mr. T. A. Hartt, M. P., delivered his lecture.

In beginning Mr. Hartt praised the Club for its good works, and said that though he was no speaker he was very glad to show his appreciation of the Club by giving it whatever it asked him for, and he had asked him for a description of his journey across Canada by the C. N. R. He joined the members, senators, reporters and railway officials, who made up the party, at Ottawa, and on a train of 7,000 mile trip. The train consisted of 3 private coaches, 2 dining-cars, an engine, which engine made a record when, alone, it drew those 15 heavy coaches over the Yellow Pass in the Rockies. The hospital-ity of the C. N. R.'s guests enjoyed was lavish, as was to be expected, and the fact that this was not a special train was a fact that was not mentioned in the train's literature, and one member of the party declared himself grateful to Sir Wilfrid Laurier that he ran the boundary lines of Saskatchewan North and South instead of East and West. The journey was planned so that parts traversed by night on the outward journey were gone over by day when returning, and in spite of this the Rockies made it impossible to shut out their glorious panorama with blinds and sleep. The C. N. R. has met with much adverse criticism, but the verdict of its guests was unanimous that in building this railway from Quebec to Vancouver a marvellous feat of engineering had been successfully carried out, and large tracts of fertile land beyond the reach of the C. P. R. or the G. T. R. had been opened up. Mr. Hartt had had great faith in the West. The large cities there had over-built, and at the moment things did not look very bright; but there was a fertile land behind those cities which would justify that over-building in the near future. In concluding he touched on a subject near at home, the St. Croix Harbor. It was with a view to interest- ing the C. N. R. officials in that project that he had accepted their invitation, and he had been so far successful that the C. N. R. officials had promised to consider the St. Croix Harbor's advantages before they finally decided on their winter port. A very hearty vote of thanks was tendered Mr. Hartt, and the meeting closed with the National Anthem.

Local and General

Tuesday being St. Andrew's Day, a special service was held in All Saints' Church in the morning.

A great many pieces of beautiful work made by the Ladies of the town for the Patriotic sale in St. John were collected by Mrs. Babbitt and forwarded to Mrs. E. A. Smith on Saturday.

The Junior committee appointed by the Women's Canadian Club to work for our soldiers this month has arranged to hold a Bean Supper on Dec. 11th in the store previously occupied by Carrara's Cafe. The proceeds of the Supper will be given to the Soldiers' Comforts Association.

The Chamcook branch of the W. A. will hold their annual sale of food and fancy work in All Saints School room on Saturday Dec. 4th. Twenty per cent of proceeds to be given to the Soldiers' Comforts Fund.

Prof. E. E. Prince, Canadian Fisheries Commissioner, and Prof. A. B. Macallum, of Toronto, a member of the Biological Board of Canada, arrived in St. Andrews by train on Tuesday, and in the afternoon made an inspection of the Biological Station at Joe's Point. On Wednesday they went to St. George to inspect the new harbor works on the Magaguadavic River at that place.

Caution to the Public. Don't be misled by any promise about any typewriter being as good as the Remington. It is impossible and you might as well have the best while you are about it.

CARD OF THANKS

Mr. and Mrs. William Thompson, of Bonaventure, take this opportunity to express their sincere thanks to the neighbors and friends who so kindly remembered them on their fifty-third anniversary of their wedding day, on Saturday, November 13.

CHARLOTTE COUNTY PATRIOTIC FUND LOTTERY

St. Stephen people have contributed about 40 prizes for a lottery in aid of the Charlotte County Branch of the Canadian Patriotic Fund. Charlotte County has undertaken to raise $24,000, as her portion of the requirements, and the proceeds of the sale of tickets for the lottery will go towards realizing that amount.

Lottery tickets are on sale at the principal places of business in St. Andrews, and receipts from the same will be forwarded by Miss Algate to Mr. E. W. Ward, St. Stephen, the treasurer of the Patriotic Fund, Charlotte Co. Branch.

As some people in St. Andrews contemplate having a similar lottery for the same patriotic cause, should this be carried out, the tickets for the same will be sold in St. Stephen as well as in St. Andrews. Whether the money is raised in St. Andrews or in St. Stephen, it will be applied to the same fund, that is, the fund for the whole County of Charlotte.

Social and Personal

Mrs. William Hope went up to Kingston to-day, and was accompanied by a number of young girls, who have gone up to attend the dance at the Royal Military College.—Montreal Herald, Nov. 25.

Miss Norine Cunningham, who has been visiting relatives in town during the summer, returned to her home in Boston last week.

Mrs. Durrell Grimmer entertained a number of her young friends at a very pleasant sewing party last week. Mrs. Austin Baid and Miss Owen Jack, accompanied by Miss Minerva Hibbard, delighted the guests by singing some of the old time melodies.

Mrs. James McDowell has returned from Megantic, Que., where she has been the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Stanley Robinson.

Miss Hilda Hewitt has returned home from an extended visit with friends and relatives in Mease, Mass., and Newport R. I.

Messrs. Glenn and Willie Thompson, spent a few days at Harvey, N. B., recently.

Mrs. G. D. Grimmer had a very delightful gathering of her friends on Thursday evening of last week. Much knitting for our boys was accomplished.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Smith, who have spent the summer in town, the guests of Mrs. Simpson, left on Tuesday of last week for their home in California. Chestnut Hall is now closed for the winter.

Miss Sarah McGaffrey is suffering from an attack of pneumonia. Her friends will be glad to hear that she is making good progress towards recovery though it will be some time before she will be about again.

Miss Nellie Mowatt was called to Beaver Harbor last week by the serious illness of her uncle, Mr. Campbell. She returned home on Saturday.

The Rev. Father Hayes, of Milltown, conducted the services in the Church of St. Andrew on Sunday, in the absence of Father Meahan.

Mrs. Will Carson returned on Saturday from a very pleasant visit with her mother and sister in Toronto.

Miss Bessie Maxwell, of St. George, has returned home after a pleasant visit with Miss Caroline Rigby.

Mrs. John Coughy entertained a party of friends last week.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Dick announce the engagement of their daughter, Treva C. to Mr. Aubrey K. Mowatt, of St. Stephen. The marriage will take place at an early date.

Rev. J. W. Meahan, D. D., who was operated on twelve days ago, for appendicitis at Chipman Memorial Hospital, St. Stephen, is still in Hospital, but is making steady progress towards recovery.

Mr. J. H. Stairs, of Woodstock, has been a welcome visitor to town for several days. He is registered at Kennedy's Hotel.

Mr. F. H. McLaughlin and Mr. J. B. Cook, of Grand Manan, were in town on Monday, and registered at Kennedy's Hotel.

Mr. Charles Wallace, having received word that his mother was extremely ill and at the point of death, left on Monday afternoon for Providence, R. I., where Mrs. Wallace has been living with her son.

Chicago, Nov. 23.—James B. Forgan, president of the first National Bank of Chicago, will exchange his duties in that post for those of chairman of the board of directors if that body, at its annual meeting in January, adopts a suggestion made by Mr. Forgan. This became known here to-day through discussion in financial circles of Mr. Forgan's probable successor as president of the bank.

Mr. Forgan, who was one of the most widely known of western bankers, said he made the suggestion to the board nearly a year ago, telling them that there were younger men in the institution perfectly capable of filling the presidency.

MARRIED

MITCHELL—VENNEL
At half past eight o'clock on Wednesday evening, November twenty-fourth, Violet, daughter of Mrs. Daniel Vennel and Mr. Winslow Mitchell were united in Holy Matrimony at St. Anne's Church, Campbellsville. As the first strains of the Wedding March sounded the bridal party entered the Church, which had been prettily decorated with potted plants by the girl friends of the bride.

The bride, sweetly gowned in her wedding dress of white crepe de chine with veil and orange blossoms and carrying a lovely bridal bouquet of white chrysanthe-mums, was given away by her brother, Mr. Arthur Vennel. She was attended by Miss Anna Mitchell, sister of the groom, who wore a dainty costume of pale green silk and shadow lace with hat to match. The bridesmaid carried a shower bouquet of pink and white carnations.

The groom was supported by his brother, Mr. Manning Mitchell. The service began with the hymn "How welcome was the bride."—then followed the full marriage service of the Church. During the whole service the subdued notes of the organ sounded sweetly through the Church.

While the register was being signed the choir sang "The Voice that breathed o'er Eden," and as the bride and groom came down the aisle the Church was filled with the clear beautiful strains of the wedding march.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mrs. Horace Mitchell, the bride's sister who relatives and friends tendered their hearty good wishes to the newly married couple for a long and happy life together.

Many gifts of silver, china, linen, etc.

OBITUARY

W. ATLEE BURPEE

W. Atlee Burpee, horticulturist and head of the firm of W. Atlee Burpee & Co., said to be the largest seed merchants in the world, died Nov. 25 at his home, Fort-hood, in Doylestown, Pa.

Mr. Burpee was born in Sheffield, N. B., Canada, April 5, 1858, the son of Dr. David and Ann Atlee Burpee, and was educated at the Friends' School in Philadelphia and at the University of Pennsylvania. In 1876 he established a seed business with two partners, but the venture was unsuccessful, and two years later he founded another firm known as W. Atlee Burpee & Co., which has grown until it comprises three large farms and fills between 5,000 and 6,000 orders daily.

In addition to his seed interests, Mr. Burpee was a director of the Market Street National Bank, the Northern Trust Company and the Colgate Company of New York. He was also a director of the Wholesale Seedman's League, was formerly president of the American Seed Trade Association, President of the National Sweet Pea Association of America, and vice-president of the National Sweet Pea Society of Great Britain.

Mr. Burpee was trustee of the Howard Hospital and Sanitarium Association of Philadelphia, a life member of the Transatlantic Society, the Royal Horticultural Society of Great Britain, and the Société Nationale d'Horticulture de France. He was a director and ex-president of the Canadian Society of Philadelphia, and a member of the National Arts and City Clubs of New York and many Philadelphia clubs.

Early Wednesday morning Nov. 24, Mrs. Priscilla Cummings, widow of the late Gilbert Cummings, passed away, at her home, Cumming's Cove after but a few hours illness, at the age of 81 years. Mrs. Cummings was in her usual health, able to attend to all her domestic duties, from a very pleasant visit with her mother and sister in Toronto.
