Belgium Figures Out Los For The First Six Days of Strike.

BRUSSELS, April 19-Twelve mi. lion dollars is the figure compiled i trustworthy circles of Belgium's los in the first six days of the strike fo equal political rights which has been joined by about 400,000 men, or hal the male working population of the

Two-thirds of this loss of $2,000,000 a day falls, according to the Socialis trade union leaders, upon the employ ers and supporters of the existing sys tem, and the organizers of the strike affirm that the men, by exercising self-denial, can hold out as long as th capitalists are willing to endure their deprivation of dividends for a political reason only.

All appearances go to show that the strike will continue for a considerable period, as the determination of the men is met by the equally firm rejection of any idea of compromise by Premier Charles De Broqueville and the other cabinet ministers. The Pro mier declares that he did not offer his resignation to King Albert on Thurs day, as reported, nor will he consent to submit to a referendum of the country the demand of the men for equal suffrage.

The printers of the capital struck work at midnight, but as the news papers were practically ready for publication at that hour, all appeared this morning. Even the men employed on the Socialist organ Le Peuple walked out, but enough will be permitted to stay to print a sheet containing strike news. Some of the evening papers came out to-day in reduced form.

The strike also extended to the tail ors in Brussels to-day and there is a marked increase in the total of men who have joined the movement. From the provinces come reports of firm intention to succeed on the part of the men, while reports of minor incidents of violence have been received from various quarters, but as a rule all i
