Del Chase Was Chased After Four Innings

Brantford Lost At Saint Thomas Yesterday, 8-1.

Star Heaver Got His Bumps in Proper Style.

ST. THOMAS, July 25.—The Saints woke up yesterday and trounced the Red Sox 8 to 1. It was a slugging match for the Saints, who garnered 14 bingles. Chase started for Brantford, but retired in favor of Deneau in the first of the fifth, after six runs had been scored off his delivery.

Deneau pitched steady ball but three bingles were secured off him. Reilly worked for St. Thomas and had everything breaking fine. The whole line-up looked different and a fast exhibition was given. Craven and Kading started at bat, Kading getting two blows, a sacrifice fly and sacrifice hit, and was hit once in five trips up. Dudley and Barrett both looked good both in the field and at bat. The score:

NOTED BILLIARD MEN AT DINNER GIVEN TO ENGLISH CHAMPION

Preliminaries of one of the greatest international billiard matches known to the history of billiards, which is to be played in New York, Chicago and Canada within the next three months, were discussed by experts in that sport at a complimentary dinner given to Melbourne Inman, the English champion, and "Willie" Hoppe, the American champion, in New York. Some twenty men, many of them billiardists of world wide fame, representatives of billiard table manufacturers, sporting writers and others were in attendance. Among those who were present at the dinner besides the two champions and Mr. Benjamin, their manager, were T. W. Walsh, A. G. Troesch, treasurer of the Brunswick-Balke-Collider Company; George Slosson and Maurice Daly, the latter two of the most noted veteran players of America.

Sudden Jump of the Boston Braves Looks Like Record

THE GRAND OLD PASTIME
When you've figured out a cinch With a double-coppered clinch That it couldn't happen so, Merely twist the situation Upside down and with elation Quickly kick in with your dough.

When you've figured to a hair And you know the logic there, And the picking's over ripe, Merely twist it upside down, Promptly play the other down, And you're planted for a pipe.

These may sound like harsh, not to say cruel, words, but we have the papers and the proof. George Stallings told us one day, as we have mentioned before, that he would be out of last place before August. When he issued that statement his club had won four games and lost eighteen. On the same date Pittsburgh had won fifteen games and lost two. Boston's percentage was .181; Pittsburgh's was .804.

On Sunday, in Cincinnati, Stallings made good his boast with ten days lost in July. And the club he first passed to emerge from the rut was Pittsburgh. In two months' time the worst looking club, then, had wiped out a margin of 715 points against the best looking club at that date.

Listens Like a Record
So far as we can figure it, this is the first time on record that a tail end club emerged from last place by beating a club that had led the league for a month. It is almost certainly the first time on record that a tail end club gained a 715 points on a leader within two months. Stallings stopped Clarke a fourteen-game lead by the middle of May and on July 20 he had passed him.

No wonder the Brave leader feels that he still has a chance to wipe out the margin he has spotted the Giants. The Aid of Art
In a peppery P. G. in the Giant camp a few night back Mr. Demaree drew one card and Daredevil Dave Robertson drew three. Then they wagered and tilted back and forth for a while until each had about eleven bones in the pot. Then Mr. Demaree called and discovered that for five minutes he had been trying to make a king full beat four jacks.

The Brave Finish
L. H.—It's better than an even bet that the Braves will finish in the first division. It's about an even bet that they will finish third. And they have a pretty good chance of finishing third.

Record Mystery
"I've followed baseball for thirty years," says official scorer John H. Gruber, "but the showing of the Pittsburgh team is the greatest mystery the game has ever known."

The Yanks of 1908 slipped from first to last place, however, showing that it can be done if you go at it in the proper way and at the proper speed. Freddie Welsh will fight Ritchie up on the same terms that Ritchie set for Welsh. In other words Welsh is to be allowed to battle for his head, deriving the benefit of an evening's exercise.

J. P.'s Daughter Charged
Mrs. Lily Jones, a well-dressed woman was bound over for six months at Torquay on Monday for stealing a diamond ring, valued at 18 pounds, from Mrs. Kershaw, widow of the late Captain Kershaw, with whom she had been staying in her husband's absence. Evidence was given that the ring was pawned for 3 pounds in the name of "Miss Brown."

Mr. Easterbrook, for the defence said Mrs. Jones was the daughter of a J. P. who had been mayor of an important borough in Devon. Drink was responsible for the sudden impulse under which she took the ring. She wished to express her regret.

Sporting Comment

"I am amazed at the size of your city," said President Ban Johnson of the American League last night in Toronto, before his departure for Detroit, along with President Barrow, of the International League. These two baseball moguls arrived yesterday morning and were the guests at a civic banquet at the National Club, where speeches were made by several gentlemen, including Sir Allen Aylesworth, formerly Minister of Justice for Canada. The latter made a hit with President Johnson, who remarked that if Toronto had more speakers and fans like Sir Allen they would be in the big league right away, the American League head being surprised at Sir Allen's knowledge of the game. Talk of Major League ball for Toronto is coupled with President Johnson's visit, but it is a little too early for such talk. However the favorable impression carried away by President Johnson of Toronto will go a long ways when it comes to forming a third major league.

Del Chase came in for a good beating yesterday at St. Thomas. Eleven hits in four innings is going some. Deneau finished the game and allowed only three bingles. It has been quite a while since Chase was pummeled and perhaps it won't do the big heavy any harm. Shamrock the Fourth is having fine weather sailing across the Atlantic. A wireless from the Erin this morning which is coming across with the Shamrock states that the Challenger sailed 222 knots in the last 24 hours.

Ed. Oatman of Ottaville, the well known hockeyist and ball player, who this season has been pitching for Ottaville team, is in trouble at Simcoe. On Wednesday when playing in Delphi, Oatman's brother got into an altercation with the umpire Oatman came to his brother's defence, with the result that the umpire was badly hurt. He immediately laid a charge of assault against Oatman who was arrested after the game and placed in jail. Bail was offered but the Crown Attorney pressed for larger securities and in the meantime Oatman remains in jail at Simcoe.

Ottawa seems to keep up rough-neck work on their own diamond. Yesterday Rogers dared Ott to go outside the ball park and the players had to come to the rescue. Some day the rowdies will be barred from the Canadian League and it will be a good thing for baseball. The Ottawa gang plays here Monday.

Canadian League Notes

Rough Work at Montreal.
Toronto Telegram: "The old rough work was in evidence in Montreal last Saturday between Nationals and the Irish Canadians, and it is regrettable if the big four has not enough control over its club to carry out its avowed policy of providing clean lacrosse. When the difference of the players cannot be subdued by the referees but must be the subject of police court attendances the national game certainly receives a black eye."

Gilhooley Yanked Again.
Hamilton Spectator: The Hamilton Baseball club directors and Manager White are confronted with another bit of trouble, with player Gilhooley again causing the rumpus. Gilhooley is the player who was suspended some time ago for indifferent playing. At that time it was felt by some of the fans and by the press that there was room for reasonable doubt in his case, and finally, at the command of Secretary Farrel of the National Association, to whom Gilhooley carried his troubles, Gilhooley was finally reinstated. An effort was made to trade him, but his services were in demand, and when Cunningham and Broadbent met with their accidents he was used in the game, playing regularly until early in the first game Wednesday when Manager White yanked him for loafing.

Pari-Mutuels on All Tracks.
Hamilton Spectator: It seems evident that the pari-mutuel betting machine will succeed the bookies on all the Canadian tracks next year. The indications all point that way, with the result that a great deal of interest will be taken in the test case now under way in British Columbia to decide whether or not betting machines can be construed as gambling under the Miller act. The officials of the Hamilton Jockey Club have been looking into the matter of installing machines here and only recently some data on them were received here. However, an officer of the local club stated this morning that nothing definite had decided upon, and that as far as he knew nothing would be done.

JOHNSON MAY PITCH NOW
CHICAGO, July 25.—Judge Baker of the appellate court yesterday refused a petition of the Cincinnati Nationals that he grant a stay of dissolution of the injunction prohibiting Pitcher Johnson from playing with the Kansas City Federals. Judge Foell has dissolved the injunction and there is now no legal impediment to Johnson's playing.

Sir William Meredith decided in favor of Dr. Martyn in the East Lambton recount appeal.
