AGAIN "ALL WELL."

Mrs. Colquhoun received a cablegram this morning from Col. Colquhoun saying, "All Well." The cable was dated Nov. 17th, but the place of sending was not stated.

BAD ACCIDENT

On Monday afternoon an unfortunate accident befell Mrs. J. Sills, of 134 William St. In some manner she fell when entering her home, and sustained a broken leg.

PRESENTS TO SOLDIERS.

St. Jude's A.Y.P.A. met on Monday evening and made arrangements for sending a Christmas remembrance to each one of their members on active service in France, England, and Canada. The rector then gave a most delightful talk on "The Book of Nature" and "The Book of God."

IMPORTANT RULING.

Tobacco in any form or liquors cannot be sent to soldiers along with other articles. If tobacco is to be sent it must be sent in a separate parcel. If it forms a part of any present forwarded to soldiers, it will be confiscated by the Customs authorities. Those forwarding parcels to soldiers should remember this.

ACTING MANAGER

Mr. William Coghill, formerly accountant of the Imperial Bank here, but now of St. Thomas, will be acting manager of the local branch in the absence of Mr. Harvey Watt, who leaves to-morrow for Alabama where his wedding takes place next week. Mr. Watt will be absent until about the second week in December.

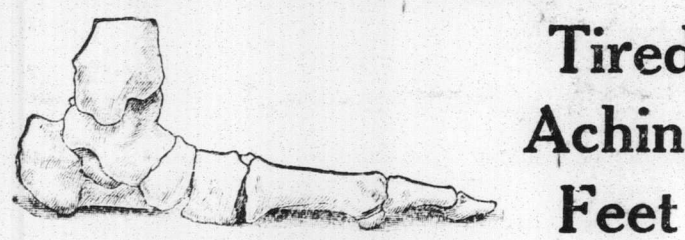

REGULAR TUESDAY MEETING.

The regular meeting of the soldiers wives and mothers took place last night in the choir room of the Park Baptist church. There was a good attendance of wives and little ones, who are always privileged to come to this meeting. The bible study, which was conducted by Miss F. Van Son, was beautiful and helpful, and much appreciated by every one. As this meeting is for women only, soldiers' wives, mothers and women friends are especially welcome, but any lady who desires to attend is also welcome. The heart to heart talk, which was on the three lost graces, will be continued next Tuesday afternoon at 2.30, by Mrs. Gardner.

There is yet time to bring that near-sighted, nervous boy or girl to us for an examination of the eyes and glasses that will make study a pleasure instead of a dread.

BEQUESTS DECLARED VOID

The will of the late Isaac Moody was set aside yesterday in Toronto by Mr. Justice Hodgins of the Assize Court. The court found that the testator was not of sound mind when the will was made. He left most of his money to Dale Church, Toronto, and several public institutions, including the School for the Blind here. As a result these places will not receive any legacy.

MASONIC VISIT.

Dr. Hanna, District Deputy Grand Master, made his official visit to Ancaster last night, accompanied by local Masons. They included Messrs. Loughhead, Whitlock, Kirkby, Sutherland, Sullivan, Whitwell, Crooker, Robinson and others. Dr. Hanna gave a fine patriotic address, and the singing of Mr. Crooker was much admired. The whole event passed off most successfully. Burlington will be visited to-night.

BELL VIEW "LIT."

The executive of the Bell View Literary and Musical Society, met last evening at the Bell View School, to arrange the programme for the winter months. Mr. Hugh Atwell, president, presided and by the manner in which the business was disposed of, the society bids fair to outdo the success attained during the past season. It was decided to open the season's program with a popular lecture on Thursday November 25th. The subject and lecturer will be announced later in the Coming Event column.

CHRISTENING PARTY

At the invitation of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Holman, of 33 Mohawk St., a large circle of friends gathered last Saturday evening to celebrate the happy event—the christening of their infant daughter, Violet Mary. The fortunate youngster was the recipient of many beautiful and useful presents. Mr. W. Hooton, as sponsor, in a happy speech, proposed the toast of the evening, "the baby." Mr. Holman feelingly returned thanks. A considerable amount of talent among the guests added to the lengthly program of music provided for the entertainment of the company. A most enjoyable evening was brought to a close with a dainty supper served by the hostess.

ZION CHURCH GUILD.

Zion Church Y.P.G. held their regular meeting on Monday evening. After several items of business had been disposed of, Mr. George Scott, convener of the Educational Department, made a general address on the subject, "Opportunity," and then called on Mr. George Stedman to read a paper based on an address by Lansper Spalding pointing out the many opportunities we meet in every day life. Mr. Chas. Thompson gave a paper on "A Young Man's Opportunity in the Church," laying emphasis on six special opportunities. "A Young Man's Opportunity at the Present Time" was dealt with in a splendid paper by Mr. Clifford Joyce. Inter-spersed with these papers were solos by Miss Allen Hart and Master Richmond Sutherland which were much enjoyed.

QUIETLY WEDDED

Private Richard Clark of the 25th Brant Dragons and Miss Annie Gardner were united in the holy bonds of matrimony on Monday evening at the First Baptist Church, by the pastor, Rev. L. Brown.

CARPET BALL

The Marlboro carpet ball team, led by G. Legacy, struck their stride last evening when they landed out a defeat to the Borden No. 1 team, in the city carpet ball league by the following score, Marlboro's 89, Borden No. 1, 66.

HELD BRIGHT SERVICE.

St. Jude's Girls' Friendly Society visited the Brant Sanatorium Sunday morning and conducted a bright little service for the inmates. Miss E. Senn and Miss E. Rowe sang solos in a most acceptable manner.

DEPUTY OFFICER.

At the regular meeting of the City Council on Monday evening, deputy returning officers for the coming year will be appointed. Much other business will be transacted and the session will be a lively one.

JURORS SELECTED.

The work of selecting jurors for the coming year is in progress all day to-day, and will be concluded to-morrow afternoon. Mayor Spence, Ward Cook, Judge Hardy, Sheriff Westbrook, Crown Attorney Wilkes, A. K. Bunnell and A. E. Watts have been appointed.

HIGH COURT SITTINGS.

The non-jury High Court will open its first sittings on November 23rd. Mr. Justice Sutherland will officiate. Only five cases have been entered at present and more are expected before the end of the week.

A REAL STORY.

The Story Hour subject at the Library to-morrow will be one of Mark Twain's popular stories, "The Prince and the Pauper." Narrated as usual by Miss Middlemiss the story will be very interesting to her audience of kiddies.

BUILDING PERMITS.

A building permit was issued this morning to Mrs. Mary J. Daley of 20 Grand street for the erection of a $1,000 brick cottage. Mr. Herbert Green received another and will build an iron garage at the rear of his property on 209 Dalhousie street. The building will cost approximately $50.

ONLY TWO CASES.

Only two cases of drunkenness troubled the police court officials this morning. One of these was allowed to go as a first offender, but the other was fined $10 and costs, which amounted to $12.85.

FINE PROSPECTS.

The first workout of the Brantford hockey team was held on the Y.M. floor last night under Ed. Gould. About eight of last year's men turned out and will soon be in the pink of condition. With some new material, the prospects for this season look very bright.

TWO MORE NAMES.

Only two recruits were registered this morning at the Brantford recruiting depot. Robert Manthorpe, 35 years of age, single, first-class, a resident of the city, joined the 25th Brant Dragons, and John S. McCauley, 20 years of age, a farmer, single, and resident of Burford, joined the 8th Dufferin Rifles. Both will be attached to the new 125th Brant Battalion.

INDOOR BASEBALL.

A close game of indoor baseball was played this morning on the Y.M. gymnasium floor between the Brant Theatre and Dufferin Rifles. The game was tied in the sixth innings, and it took an extra frame to make the score 7-6 in favor of the Theatre team. The batteries were: Theatre, Johnson and Henderson; Dufferin Rifles, Stewart and Williams.

INSPECTION.

The 8th Battalion and the battalion quarters were thoroughly examined by Lieut.-Col. G. Acheson, this morning, and everything was found very satisfactory. While the soldiers were forming up on the square, he inspected the quarters and found everything nothing but cleanliness and precision. The men themselves looked smart and every inch old soldiers. Both "C" and "D" Companies were strengthened yesterday by the addition of 20 men.

Y. M. WORK.

With the fall season just opening, the activities at the Y.M.C.A. are beginning to get numerous. On Friday, the groups will be opened with a supper, after which the mentors will thoroughly organize their groups. Plans for the season will be discussed and formed. The Boys' Leaders corps will meet this evening for the first time when leaders and other officers will be appointed. Another feature this evening will be the basketball game between the Battery team and the Brants. It will be a real game.

YOUNG PEOPLE MEET.

The regular weekly meeting of the Y. P. S. C. E. of Balfour St. Presbyterian church, was held in the church last evening. A membership campaign has been started, with Miss Winnie Campbell, captain of the purple side, and Miss Margaret Morrison, captain of the gold side. The purple side was in the lead last evening. There was quite a good attendance last evening, and it is hoped that it will continue. The topic for the evening was "The Battle with the Bar."

Grand Rush in London

By Special Wire to the Courier.

New York, Nov. 17.—A cable to the Tribune from London says: With only fifteen days left before Lord Derby's recruiting scheme gives way to conscription, bachelors stormed London's recruiting offices yesterday until the war's record was made. Men with silk hats, men with caps, men with derbies, jostled one another in the anxiety to be enrolled as soon as possible. Some times they came in batches from the same business houses. This rush to the colors was not confined to any section, but from every part of London came reports of record enlistments.

Roumania Will Side With the Teutons?

By Special Wire to the Courier.

Bucharest, Nov. 12.—Via London, Nov. 17.—(Delayed in transmission) Former Premier Carp is credited by the newspapers Adevartul with the statement that Roumania will take up arms on the side of Germany in December. The prediction is made by M. Carp that as soon as established communications make it possible, Roumania will make new offers to Germany in the form of an ultimatum requiring a reply within 48 hours.
